WEATHER INDICATIONS.

U. S. Department of Agriculture,
Weather Bureau.
Toledo, O., May 3, 1892.

The storm center has advanced from Oklahoma to Wisconsin during the past 24 hours. It has caused rain over the entire country north of the latitude of 35, with local thunder storms. The area of high pressure has advanced to the southwest and dominates the weather over the southern states.

The temperature has remained nearly stationary in all districts, except over Wyoming, where it has fallen 10 degrees.

It was snowing over South Dakota this morning.

The Mississippi river is above the danger line from Cairo southward, and is rising from Memphis to New Orleans. The river at the latter point reads 16.2 feet; this is 3.2 feet above the danger line and up to the highest point reached.

Forecast for Toledo and vicinity—Generally fair, with occasional showers, followed by cooler to-morrow.

E. A. HANNER, Observer.

Ohio—Showers; southwest winds.

Indiana and Illinois—Showers; clearing to-night; south winds, shifting to north west; slightly cooler.

Michigan and Wisconsin—Rain; east winds.

AN AWFUL DEATH

Awaits Dictator Palacio in the Event

That Any Harm Comes to Crespo's Son.

If the Boy Dies by Order of the Ruler

He Will Be Burned at the Stake in Revenge.

The Attacking Forces Coming Nearer and Nearer to the City of Caracas, and the Final Blow Will Soon be Struck.

New York, May 3.—A Herald special from Barquisimeto, Venezuela, says that Dictator Palacio's threat to kill the son of Gen. Crespo as soon as the latter comes within a league of Caracas, has reached the headquarters of the revolutionists and excited great indignation. Gen. Crespo declares that if his son is put to death Palacio will be burned at the stake in the plaza in front of the Casa Amarilla.

Crespo is getting dangerously near Caracas, but he is not yet prepared to attack it. He will not descend on Caracas until Victoria has fallen, and all his plans are now tending to the accomplishment of this latter object. Guerre, who, with Alayon and others, has rendered Casanas helpless on the prairies in and around Calabozo, has been ordered up to the investment of Victoria. When this place is taken a death blow will have been given to Palacio's cause. Palacio has just issued a circular to the people of Venezuela in which he says that at the conclusion of the war, whether it results in a victory for the government or submission to the rebels, the different states will be called upon to elect representatives to the assembly, which will consider the question of the reformed constitution. To this assembly he will hand in his resignation, which for no human consideration would he retain for a longer period.

THEY WANT THEIR FLAGS.

Chicago, April 3.—The three red flags seized by the police in the May day parade here promise to become a subject of controversy in the courts. A delegation representing the offending organizations called upon Chief of Police McClaughey to demand a return of the emblems, but received instead a tart lecture.

They left promising to return with a reiteration of the demand, and threatening that if met with a refusal they would swear out a writ of replevin.

PENSION OFFICE.

Washington, May 2.—The special pension office investigating committee of the house resumed the examination of witnesses to-day. Capt. J. D. Rhodes, an attorney who was disbarred from practice before the pension office in Nivember was the first witness.

QUARTZ MILL BURNED.

Carson, Nev., May 3.—The Eureka quartz mill, property of the Comstock Mill and Mining company, burned to the ground yesterday and is a total wreck. The loss is $100,000. Sixty men are thrown out of employment. An exploding lamp was the cause.

Hard to swallow—the great, griping old-fashioned pill; and that's not the hardest part of it, either. Your troubles are only beginning when you get it down. It's all nonsense. You can get more good, and without having to suffer for it, with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Not merely temporary good, but help that lasts. In a perfectly easy and natural way they cleanse and regulate the whole system, and keep it regulated. Sick and Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured.

They're the original Liver Pills, the smallest, easiest and best to take—and they're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. This is true only of Dr. Pierce's medicines.

A perfect vest-pocket remedy, in small vials, and only one necessary for a dose.

J. FOXCROFT COLE

A Well Known Boston Artist, Has Passed Away.

Boston, May 3.—The well known landscape artist, J. Foxcroft Cole, died at his residence of pneumonia, aged 59 years.

Mr. Cole has been a frequent contributor to the Paris salon, and his pictures have been of a superior order of excellence. He leaves a daughter and a son.

Mr. Cole was chairman of the advisory committee on the fine arts for the city of Boston for the World's fair.

MYSTERIOUSLY MISSING.

Springfield, O., May 3.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned here by the mysterious disappearance of Mary Carr. Miss Carr was engaged to marry Thomas Barnes, son of a wealthy farmer living near here, and all preparations had been made for the marriage which was to have occurred Sunday evening. He went to the house Sunday afternoon and her people said she had gone out. Since then nothing has been seen or heard of the girl and her disappearance is unexplainable. Barnes said they had not quarreled. He gave her $40 Saturday.

IMPORTANT CASES.

Upper Sandusky, O., May 3.—There are two very important cases being heard here before Hon. J. F. McNeal, of Marion, acting as referee. The first is Wilson Carothers, executor of the estate of Adam Keller, deceased, against the estate of David Straw for $12,492.64, and the second, Catherine Wonder, administratrix of the estate of Mathias Wonder, against the same estate for $33,000. The cases are similar, and the fate of one will decide the other.

TARRED AND FEATHERED HIM.

Oshkosh, Wis., May 3.—Frank Victoria, a barber, was tarred and feathered in his place of business on Atter street, at about 9 o'clock last evening. He was charged with being the correspondent of the Chicago Sun, a sensational paper, and with having written several articles reflecting in the most scandalous manner upon a number of the most prominent citizens of Oshkosh.

IT DODGED THE TOWN

A Cyclone Works Around Kingfisher,

But Does Much Damage at Other Points.

Several Persons Killed, Many Buildings Overturned and Crops Badly Injured.

Kingfisher, O. T., May 3.—A cyclone gathering force in the southwest portion of Kingfisher last evening, created wild excitement and fear among the residents. A heavy rain storm began an hour before, quickly followed by immense hailstones. Windows were broken and men and animals knocked senseless.

The loosely built board houses were deserted and women hid in cellars under unfinished buildings, half filled with water from the recent storm, but the cyclone turned to the south a half mile and just missed the town.

The cyclone did great damage to growing crops, overturning houses in its path and killing considerable young stock, finally spending its force about 15 miles distant. The only damage done in Kingfisher was to overturn small outbuildings and unroofed two residences.

Fourteen residence outside the city were destroyed and great damage to crops by the hail.

F. A. Bidwell, of York, Neb., and his son were killed here by the cyclone. They wert expecting the rest of the family to arrive here yesterday. Simon Bates, a farmer, while riding, was overtaken by the cyclone. He dismounted and held his horse by the lariat rope. The horse became frantic and wound Bates up in the rope. Before he could extricate himself the horse was lifted from the earth and carried a hundred feet. Bates' left leg was fractured and he received internal injuries.

George Rickert and his family of 10 entered a dugout and the house was torn to atoms. A portion of tht roof was hurled against the roof of the cave, crushing it in. All escaped with bruises.

GENERAL D'UTASSY IS DEAD

Brave Union Soldier Commits Suicide.

He Goes to His Room, Turns On the Gas, and Never Recovers from the Effects.

Wilmington, Del., May 3.—Gen. George F. D'Utassy, general manager of the Phoenix Insurance company of Hartford, Conn., died at the Delaware hospital here yesterday.

On Saturday afternoon the general registered at the Hotel Willis and was assigned to a room. Nothing more was heard of him until Sunday afternoon, when he was found by a servant overcome by gas.

When asked if he intended to commit suicide he replied affirmatively by nodding his head. He was removed to an hospital, where he died.

Gen. D'Utassy was a brave union general, and had command of a division of New York volunteers at Fredericksburg.

NEW CORPORATIONS.

Columbus, May 3.—The following articles of corporation were filed in the office of the secretary of state to-day: The River Side Class of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Hicksville; The Industry Savings & Building Co., Toledo, increase of capital stock from $500,000 to $3,000,000; The Orange Creamery Co-operative Co., Lewis Centre, capital stock $5,000; Bucyrus Council No. 184, Junior Order United American Mechanics, Bucyrus; The New Plymouth Clay Co., New Plymouth, capital stock $20,000; The Van Netle Water Purifier Co., Tiffin, capital stock $10,000.

A DEFAULTER SURRENDERS.

Memphis, Tenn., May 3.—The man giving his name as A. F. Avery and his home as Rochester, N. Y., has surrendered to the Memphis officials, saying he is a defaulter from the Rochester & Pittsburg railway, of which he was the local freight agent, to the extent of $1,200. He lost the money, he says, on the races. Rochester dispatches confirm the man's statement.

ON A STRIKE.

New York, May 3.—The United German and English carpenters went out on a strike because of the failure of the master framers and carpenters to sign an agreement fixing a schedule of prices for labor. This agreement has been made every year, but this year when it was presnted only 18 out of the 45 bosses signed. By noon, however, the bosses came to terms, and all signed the agreement but six.

WILL KNOW IN TIME.

London, May 3.—In the house of commons yesterday Mr. James Lowther, parliamentary secretary of the foreign office stated in reply to questions that the government had no official news of the outbreak in Venezuela. The British warships had, however, been ordered to Laguayra.

FELL TO HER DEATH.

Upper Sandusky, O., May 3.—(Special)—Mrs. Lizzie Picard, a lady almost 80 years of age, residing with her son and daughter in this city, was instantly killed last night by falling down a cellarway.

MARKING THE SHOALS

Interesting News to the Lake Mariners.

Many New Reefs Have Been Located.

The Wrecked Schooner Snowdrop—Shippers and Skippers After Freight—General and Local Mention.

Chicago, May 3.—(Special Marine Service)—Capt. Nicoll Ludlow, in charge of this light-house district, has returned from his annual tour replacing buoys on Lake Michigan and Green Bay. He found that contractors at several places were so far behind with their work of putting buoys in position that he will recommend no further appropriations for this work, but will do it himself next season. Last fall when the heavy November gales came the crews of the lightships on the dangerous reefs in the Straits of Mackinac deserted their posts of duty. "I have men this year," Capt. Ludlow said, who will not run away when the wind blows. I picked up crews right at Cheboygan, and no storm will throw them into a panic."

Many changes in the buoys were made. The most important is the placing of new marks on the channel through Poverty island passages. The water was very clear in early spring down there, and Capt. Ludlow was able to trace the sharp limestone reef directly across the path of vessels. It runs three-quarters of a mile south by east from the buoy on the 15-foot shoal. The end of this reef was marked by a red buoy, and the buoy on 17-foot shoal was changed to a black can. There is at least twenty feet of water between these two marks.

Capt. Ludlow says that it is a mistake to suppose that there is deep water in the Strawberry island passage, for it is not there. He placed a red spar buoy at the south end of Strawberry shoal in 13 feet of water, and another red buoy on the north end. The buoy at Horseshoe has been moved a half mile further east and painted red. Boats going slowly and hugging these buoys can get 16 feet of water.

At the north end of Squaw island he placed a black iron buoy in 23 feet of water, and a red and black spar buoy on Garden island shoals in 15 feet of water, also a red buoy in 17 feet at the south end of Whisky island shoals.

On the dangerous reef off Racine, Capt. Ludlow found with difficulty a small buoy, which he immediately replaced, with one 35 feet long in 19 feet of water. It was on this spot that the steamer Jay Gould recently brought up in a northeast gale.

Insurance Rates.

The Chicago board of underwriters adopted the following rates on grain cargoes yesterday to go into effect at once per hundred dollars: To ports on Lake Michigan, 30 cents; Lake Superior, 50 cents; Lake Huron, Sarnia and Detroit river, 25 cents; Georgian bay and Lake Erie, 40 cents; Lake Ontario, Ogdensburg and Montreal, 50 cents. The Montreal rate is remarkably low, and it is intended to meet the competition of Canadian firms insuring grain from the [illegible]

Shippers and Skippers.

It was a stand-off between shippers and skippers on grain freights yesterday. There was but little demand, and there was little or no Buffalo tonnage offered. Line steamers took wheat to Buffalo at 2 1-4 cents and corn at 2 cents. The Kingston rate advanced to 3 1-2 cents. Charters: To Port Huron—Ida Keith, corn; Homer, oats; Adirondac, corn. To Kingston: Escanaba, corn. Lumber freights were firm. From Menominee the rate is $1.62 1-2.

All the Money Gone.

All the lighthouse appropriations for Lake Michigan and Green Bay, including the one of $95,000 for a new lighthouse steamer in this district, have gone by the board, and the committee will only recommend a small appropriation for some range lights on St. Mary's river.

Congressman Holman, whose desire for reducing appropriations is accredited with the general slaughter of improvements which marine men are seeking, is not just now a prime favorite on the lakes. An effort will be made to restore the item for the steamer, which is badly needed, but it is not thought it will be successful.

The Luff.

The schooner Sophia Luff is having a hard time of it. She left Collingwood with her cargo of wet corn on board for Chicago, but was caught by another gale on Georgian bay, and after a hard struggle got back to Collingwood, leaking badly. That cargo was a very unlucky one.

James C. Balger, of Chicago, yesterday purchased the schooner H. C. Winslow.

The steamer S. Neff went ashore at Forest bay, near Sand Beach, Mich., yesterday morning, but got afloat after the life saving service crew had jettisoned 1,000 ties.

The World's fair life-saving station at Jackson park will be completed October 1. It is to be a very elaborate, handsome affair and will be the crack life-saving station of the entire country. It is to cost $20,000. Bids for the construction of the building are now being advertised for.

The Snowdrop.

The crew of the schooner Snowdrop, wrecked on the rocks of Milwaukee North Point, arrived in Chicago yesterday. Capt. Shippers remained in Milwaukee. The cargo of cedar posts (9,000 worth 10 cents each) is consigned to the Ford River Lumber company, of Chicago, and is uninsured. Capt. Wm. Walsh left here yesterday to look after the saving of the cargo. The Snowdrop was built in 1853, but was recently rebuilt. John Tholan, of South Chicago, is the owner of the vessel, and is also uninsured.

It was late at night when the Snowdrop stranded, and a heavy sea was running. After two attempts the tug Strake succeeded in towing the lifeboat out to the vessel, and the life-savers, with great risk, succeeded in rescuing the crew—Capt. Henry Shippers, Mate N. Schultz, John Buss, Charles Ostbing, Martin Nelson, Charles Bricson and John Schneppel, seamen, all of Chicago. The men give the highest praise to Capt. Driscoll of the Starke and the life-saving crew. The latter was in charge of Peter Nelson Capt. Peterson being sick.

Reports from the scene of the disaster yesterday say the Snowdrop is full of water and that holes have doubtless been stove in her bottom. The deckload had not been washed off to any extent and can nearly all be saved.

Lake Carriers.

The Chicago branch of the newly organized Lake Carriers' association met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the arbitration room of the board of trade. J. G. Keith, J. L. Higgie, William Owen, J. S. Dunham, Wiley M. Egan, C. F. A. Spencer and others were in attendance. On motion Capt. Egan was chosen chairman and Capt. Frank Higgie was made clerk. It was moved that an executive committee be appointed, and the chair selected Messrs. J. L. Higgie, Owen and Keith. The meeting was solely for organization. It is understood that a shipping office for seamen will be opened within a few days.

New masters sworn in: Alex Cleghorn, tug Mary McLean; John C. Raleigh, steamer City of Ludington; James Travis, schooner D. R. Martin; A. C. Wilson, tug W. L. Ewing; H. Landgraf, schooner Ida Keith; August Bechstrom, schooner Bay State.

Capt. A. B. Davis has received orders to fit out the revenue cutter Andy Johnson for service May 15. First Lieutenant J. B. Butt is detailed for the Johnson.

The steamer Cuba is running in the Lackawanna line this season.

Capt. Granger's corpse is on board the schooner Stephenson, which was expected at the Soo yesterday.

Passed Port Huron.

Port Huron, May 3.—Up—Juniata, Wilbur, 10:40 last night; Conemaugh, Egan, 11; John Eddy, Shaw, Donaldson barge, 11:20; Tecumseh consort, midnight; Commodore, 12:20; Roy, Oscoda consort, Madden consorts, 2; Barnum, 2:30; Roberts, 3; Maine barges, 4; Business, Bacon, 6:40; Jenks, 7. Cleared—Crawford, Jackson, Sanilac, 9.

Down—Bulgaria consorts, 7:40 a. m.; Brazil, 8; Kalkaskia, Brittanic, 8:15; Continental consorts, Josephine, Parker, 8:30; Cayuga, 8:40; Niagara barges, 9; Taconia, Duncan, 9:14; Argonaut, Roy, 9:30; Iron Chief consort, St. Lawrence, 10; Outhwaite, Gifford, 10:10. Wind southwest; fresh;

Sophia Minch Safe.

Duluth, May 3.—The schooner Sophia Minch, which had been missing since last Thursday morning, sailed into port alone this morning, not much the worse for her rough experience. After breaking away from the steamer Everett the schooner was carried to the north shore of Lake Superior near Isle Royal by the gale. There she dropped anchor and rode out the storm in safety.

For carrying wheat to Buffalo to-day 3 1-4c is the general bid. Yesterday's business at 3 1-4c was for immediate loading.

Business Boomed.

Chicago, May 3.—(Special Marine Service)—Big business was done by grain shippers to-day in moving corn forward by lake. Not less than 400,000 bushels were placed for Buffalo and Montreal. Business was done at 2 cents to Buffalo and 3 1-4 cents to Kingston.

Early charters were: To Erie, Byron Whitaker, Unadilla, corn; to Buffalo, Charles Eddy, corn, Newell, Eddy, wheat, Commodore, oats and corn, Milwaukee, oats; to Kingston, Rhoda Emily, corn; to Port Huron, George Steele, oats, 1 3-4c.

Cleveland Rates.

Cleveland, May 3.—Nothwithstanding very strong conditions of Duluth grain freights, ore shippers yesterday secured four vessels to bring ore from Escanaba at 70. They will endeavor to stave off advance as long as Chicago grain rates remain at present figures. Boats are badly wanted to bring ore from Ashland and it is probable that $1.25 could be secured if tonnage was to be had. Demand for coal vessels exceeds supply.

Big Day in Chicago.

Chicago, May 3.—The biggest business in lake freight was done to-day. The totals were for 344,000 on wheat, 596,000 on corn, 183,000 on oats, 100,000 on flax seed.

Late charters to Buffalo: City of Rome, Oceanica, wheat; Armour, wheat and corn; Wilbur, wheat and corn. To Kingston: Golden Age, corn; Edwards, flaxseed; Peublo, wheat; Omaha, corn to Erie; Nahant, corn.

At the Crossing.

Lime Kilns, May 3.—(Special Marine Service)—Down, p. m., Cross barges, 11:15; John Owen, 6:15; Forest City, consort, 6:50; Fryer, consort, 7:40; Montana, 8:40; Britton, Phillip Minch, 10:10; New York, 10:40.

Up—City of Mt. Clemens, 12; Sweepstakes, barges, 2:15; Bessie, 4:30; Cambria, 6:50; Nimick, 7:50; Abercorn, Adams, 8:40.

Through the Straits.

Mackinaw, May 3.—(Special Marine Service)—Down—Geo. B. Smith, midnight; Rochester 3; Grecian, 8.

Up—a. m., Omaha, 4:30; Castle, 10.

At anchor—Red White, Blue. Wind east, fresh, thick, raining.

Dull at Buffalo.

Buffalo, May 3.—(Special Marine Service)—Coal freights were without change. Charters: Hecla, Quito, Vail for Chicago, 40c; J. S. Richards to Toledo, 25c.

Years of Service.

Two Rivers May 3.—After having charge of the life saving station for 15 years Capt. Oliver Piland died last night aged 50 years.

Long Trip.

Sturgeon Bay May 3.—The schooner Siegel arrived here from Cleveland having taken 19 days for the trip.

Local Marine News.

The passenger steamer Bessie came in yesterday and took out some freight.

And now it is said the Detroit and Cleveland line of steamers may come here after all.

The Flora left for Mackinaw this morning with a large freight cargo and a few passengers.

The sea gulls have disappeared from the river which is a sign that the storm outside has abated.

The change in bridge tenders has not affected in the operation of navigation disastrously. A democrat can fill any office that a republican can.

The John Schuette came in this morning with coal from Buffalo. The Granthan came in light and the St. Lawrence went out with coal for Milwaukee.

AN UNHAPPY ALLIANCE

Denning Denounces His Mormon Wife.

He Puts His Property In Shape and Declares He Will Pay No More Debts.

Manistee, Mich., May 3.—M. R. Denning, a rich lumber man and a member of the legislature, put his property out of his hands yesterday and announced in the public prints that he will no longer pay debts contracted by his wife. He has left town declaring that he will never return.

Denning married a few years ago Brigham Young's nineteenth wife, who as Ann Eliza Young acquired celebrity as a lecturer before she met Denning.

Previous to entering Brigham Young's fold she was the wife of a Mr. Doe, of Utah. She says she has borne much from Denning and professes to be the injured one.

CIGARMAKERS LOCKED OUT.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 3.—About 200 cigarmakers are locked out in this city. Some time ago the unions made a demand to the manufacturers for an increase of $1 per 1,000 to take effect to-day. The manufacturers decided to stand together and not pay the increase demanded. If the cigarmakers gained their point it would have brought their wages up to a higher standard than is paid in any other city in the country.

O. T. WOODRUFF DEAD.

Struck by a Train on the West Jersey.

The Inventor of the Sleeping Car Meets Death in a Sad Manner in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 3.—O. T. Woodruff, a civil and mechanical engineer, and a close friend of Andrew Carnegie, and Senator John Sherman, was instantly killed yesterday by the Brighton express, as he was crossing the tracks of the West Jersey railway at Gloucester. Mr. Woodruff was 81 years old, president of the Woodruff midship screw flange propeller company, inventor of the sleeping car, and first president of the Central Transportation company.

Years ago Mr. Woodruff lived in the present abode of Senator Sherman at Mansfield, O., and was president of the First National bank in that city.

STRIKE AT CLEVELAND.

The Coal Handlers Must Return to Work or Lose Their Jobs.

Cleveland, O., May 3.—The strike of the coal handlers on the Cleveland, Canton & Southern and the Cleveland & Pittsburg docks continues, with no important changes.

The strikers have been informed by the Cleveland, Canton & Southern people that unless they are ready to go to work tomorrow morning at the old scale of wages they will be discharged and non-union men will be hired to take their places.

The men declare that if this threat is carried out there will be serious trouble.

MORE FIRE WASTE.

Hillsboro, Tex., May 3.—Fire yesterday destroyed $50,000 worth of property in the business portion of this town. The principal losers are O. L. Lyons & Sons, lumber yard, $20,000, and N. B. Kennedy, $4,000.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Only a small portion of the loss is covered by insurance.

DYNAMITERS INDICTED.

True Bills Found Against Mowbray and Nicholls.

They Will be Tried for Inciting Their Followers in London to Riot and Murder.

London, May 3.—At the Old Bailey the grand jury have brought true bill against Mowbray, publisher, and Nicholls, editor of the anarchist newspaper, the Commonweal, seized last week by the police.

The charges aginst them are based on articles in the Commonweal inciting to the murder of Mr. Matthews, home secretary, and Sir Henry Hawkins, justice of the queen's bench.

The suppression of the paper at the time it was effected was most fortunate as it prevented the issue of a dangerous inflammatory number which was to have been issued on May day and revealed its connection with the Walsall anarchists and threw light on their doings. It, in fact, completely broke up the conspiracy of the anarchists so that they were able to make no show whatever on Sunday.

Of the men indicted to-day an example is sought to be made which will put a final extinguisher on a species of plotting so foreign and averse to the spirit of the British people.

PRINCE RUSS IN TROUBLE

A Yellowstone Park Scandal the Latest.

He Was to Receive Fifty Thousand Dollars in Stock for the Use of His Influence.

Washington, May 3.—Prince Russell is again in hot water.

According to testimony before the house committee on public lands, the son of the chief executive was to have been paid $50,000 worth of stock of the Yellowstone Park association for his influence with Secretary Noble.

The suggestion originated with E. C. Waters, formerly manager for the association, and he made it to T. F. Oakes, president of the Northern Pacific railroad and treasurer of the Yellowstone Park company.

Mr. Oakes appears to have rejected the proposition to buy Russell Harrison's influence, but Mr. Waters, who was on the witness stand, was so greatly confused and embarrassed that he forgot this among other important details.

THE ALLIANCE PRESIDENTS

They are Holding a Meeting in Washington.

The Officers are Divided on the Third Party Question, and a Lively Time is Expected.

Birmingham, Ala., May 3.—Fifteen states are represented at the meeting of alliance presidents and executive committemen which convened here at 10 o'clock this morning in the parlors of the Florence hotel.

The meeting was called to order by C. W. Macune, of Washington. The prevailing sentiment is in favor of third party action, but those opposing it are organizing their forces for a fight to the finish against such a move, and a lively time is looked for.

President Polk openly says now that all true alliance men will vote for the full people's party ticket to be nominated at Omaha.

STEAMER AND CARGO LOST.

Madison, Ind., May 3.—The steamer City of Clarksville sunk at Stephens' branch in the Kentucky river Sunday afternoon. She was loaded with grain and other freight, and had 20 passengers. The passengers and crew escaped in safety. The steamer and cargo will prove a total loss.

COLUMBIA UNION NO. 101

Washington Printers Dedicate Their Building.

The President Attends and Gives all the Boys a Chance to Shake His Hand.

Washington, May 3.—Columbia typographical union, No. 101, dedicated last night their new building in this city, the finest erected by a single chapter of a labor organization. The hall was elaborately decorated with bunting and the stage partly covered by palms.

Representative and ex-Printer Amos J. Cummings delivered an eloquent dedicatory speech.

Senator Gallinger, who will be orator at the dedication of the Childs-Drexel home, and others followed him, and President Harrison honored the union with his presence, accompanied by Private Secretary Halford.

The president entered the hall after the speechmaking. He was greeted by a prolonged shout and then three hearty cheers. Standing on the steps in front of the platform, the president shook hands with the people who filed past him from the body of the hall.

THE LAY DELEGATES WIN

They Get Separate Seats in the Conference.

A Long Discussion on the Subject.

The Methodist Conference Now Down to Business and Ready for the Weightier Questions.

Omaha, Neb., May 3.—The twenty-fourth quadrennial conference of the M. E. church, now in session here, promises to be one of the most interesting in the history of the church. The great question before the body yesterday was that of giving the lay delegates separate seats.

Mr. Sinkle, of Kentucky, vigorously combatted the idea. "I do not congratulate the laymen upon this demand for separate seating," said Mr. Sinkle. "I know that we had the meeting the other night and 71 out of the 100 laymen voted for the separate seating. They want the sheep and the goats separated. Some thought they should be called sheep and lambs. Well, I want to plead for the lambs. I want the laymen and ministers seated together.

"I want the advice of the ministers and I want the ministers to get advice occasionally from the laymen.

"If we are seated separately it will have the appearance of antagonism. The Methodist church is not a divided body. It is one church for ministers and laymen. If the laymen are shoved off in one corner we shall appear to be interlopers when we go over to speak to the ministerial delegates.

"I want equal representation in the conference for the laymen, remember, but I am opposed to the separation of the lay and ministerial delegates. Please, brethren, do not separate the laymen from the ministers.

"I don't want to be separated from the ministers. I have never yet been advised in a general conference to do a wrong thing by a minister. I hope, brethren, this resolution will not carry, and we shall regret it if the laymen and ministers are separated."

Mr. Murray, of Pennsylvania, a lay delegate, said they were glad to do honor to the ministers, but they wanted to be seated by themselves for the influence it would give in the conference. They had lost their individuality heretofore, as 100 laymen had been intersperse between over 3,000 ministers. One advantage the proposed order of things would give would be the possibility of conferring together. They merely wanted to be placed on an equality with the ministers.

Mr. Field, of Philadelphia, said that there was no thought of arousing antagonism between the laymen and the ministers. The desire was to create a closer union by placing the laymen where they could do the most for the interests they represented.

Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate, of New York city, then took the floor. He said the object of giving laymen representation in the conference was not to increase the size of the body, but to secure the assistance of the laymen in the framing of the laws of the church. Had the laymen been given a fair chance to exercise equal power with the ministers? Dr. Buckley thought not.

He recounted the history of the conference legislation upon the subject and held that the laymen had been handicapped by failing to get a separate vote in the conference when they had demanded it. "Nine-tenths of the laymen," said Dr. Buckley, "attend but one general conference, but the ministerial delegates usually go to conference after conference and the bishops who preside know them. The bishops are not acquainted with the laymen, and when they rise on the floor along with half a dozen ministers, what is the usual result? The presiding officer usually recognizes some ministerial delegate and the layman sits down."

Dr. Lewis Curts, of Chicago, said that it was simply a question of privilege for the layman, and not of compulsion. If they wanted to sit by themselves, the ministers could not do less than to grant their request.

F. H. Root, of Buffalo, a layman, spoke in opposition to the separate seating scheme. He wished to see harmony and unity all through, and he believed that separate seating would result in a semblance at least of discord and a lack of unity of purpose.

Ex-Gov. Evans, of Colorado, stated that somebody had evidently been scared before they were hurt. There seemed to be a little apprehension that they were not all members of the same church. He could not understand why the ministers were afraid that the laymen think it wise to condemn a thing just because it was proposed by a minister of the conference, and he hoped that the ministers would see that there was danger in voting against the resolution.

After a long discussion the conference decided to allow lay delegates who desired to select separate seats from the ministers. On motion of Dr. Putman a section of the hall was set apart for the lay delegates, and then the choice of seats by lot was commenced. This lasted until 7:30 in the evening, when the conference adjourned.

Second Day.

The second day of the quadrennial conference was opened with Bishop Merrill, of Chicago, in the chair. The galleries and balconies were crowded with sightseers, mostly women. The devotionals were conducted by Dr. J. C. Hatzell and after singing the coronation, the minutes were read and immediately there was trouble, as many of the delegates claimed that their votes yesterday had been recorded improperly and a heated discussion arose and an hour was lost in trying to straighten out the records.

It was finally discovered that the published report in the daily record was erroneous and peace was restored. The selection of seats was then finished.

The conference seems to be a body of men with at least six distinct opinions on each and every question and the presiding bishop was compelled to beg, time and time again, to have order, but it seems almost impossible to secure it.

Many spectators drifted into the hall and appropriated seats set apart for delegates and would not give them up, and it became necessary to call the roll and discover the wolves who had gotten into the fold.

To relieve the monotony, Dr. Palmer announced that Dr. Stiles White, sitting among the laymen, had lost his pocketbook containing $20 and a ticket. This raised quite a ripple of laughter and Dr. Palmer threatened to eject any reporter who would publish the fact, whereupon every reporter in the room copied it in his report.

Bishop Foster now assumed the chair, relieving Dr. Merrill. Dr. Kysmet, of Philadelphia was without a seat and he announced that fact every two minutes until it finally became necessary to order a call of the roll to secure the doctor a seat. He finally got it, but others clamored loudly for seats and it was impossible to proceed with business.

The Delaware and Michigan conference had a row over their seats. Michigan claimed priority of right, while Delaware had squatted on their claim. A heated discussion ensued and 20 minutes were consumed. Finally, when the excitement was at fever heat the dispute was referred to the committee on hall and the call proceeded.

UNTIL MAY 5th

DRS. COPELAND AND BELL EXTEND FREE TREATMENT.

Up To That Date They Will Positively Receive and Treat All Patients Who Apply, Furnishing Them With Medicines for Two Weeks, Without Money or Without Fee of Any Kind. Plain and Adequate Reasons for the Introduction at This Time of the Year of This Novel and Liberal Offer.

The period of free treatment that Drs. Copeland and Bell offered to introduce their methods of curing catarrhal troubles at the outset of the most favorable season of the year for the treatment and cure of those troubles, expired May 1. It has been a liberal custom on the part of these physicians often at the commencement of the summer season, to give such opportunity for testing the value and efficiency of their methods. The late spring and summer is, beyond all peradventure, the best time of the year for the treatment and cure of catarrhal troubles. The liability to catching cold is then reduced to the minimum, and the climatic conditions favor the progress of the patient; but in Toledo there has been a double reason for this offer: The addition here to the staff of the Copeland Institute of Dr. E. O. Bell, a successful and thoroughly trained specialist, and the desire that all who wish should make Dr. Bell's personal acquaintance speedily and at once, has furnished a second reason for this offer. Hundreds have availed themselves of it during the past week, and many who have not been able to come into the office have written and expressed a desire to take advantage of this offer on the first or second of the month, saying that they could not get in before. For this reason, Drs. Copeland and Bell have decided to extend the period for free treatment for the first five days of the month, and all who apply to them before May 5 will receive two weeks' medicine and treatment free.

Let it be understood that this offer means exactly what it says; that it is not like others of the kind that have simply been made which contains some trick by which to catch money from patients. This is plain and unequivocal. Positively no money will be received under this offer by Drs. Copeland and Bell under any circumstances, and all who apply will be treated two weeks and furnished with medicines positively without money and without price. There need be no hesitation on the part of anybody, for fear that this offer may be construed as a charitable one, in accepting it. It is not charity; it is a matter of business. Drs. Copeland and Bell take this way of introducing their methods at this time of the year, and all, whether rich or poor, are cordially welcome to accept of it.

All Persons Applying Before May 5th will be Treated Free for Two Weeks, and Receive All Medicines Free.

ANOTHER WITNESS.

Mr. Robert Young Tells What Drs Copeland and Bell Have Accomplished for Him.

"When I went to Drs. Copeland and Bell, I couldn't speak above a whisper. I was completely broken down from the effects of neglected catarrh."

The speaker was Mr. Robert Young, residing on Craig street.

"A very bad cough had settled on me—I coughed almost constantly. My throat was sore and raw. My head ached continually. My eyes were dim and watery, and I could not see distinctly.

"Sharp pains would take me in the chest, running through to the shoulder blades. My chest felt sore and oppressed all the time, as if my lungs were affected.

"The secretions dropping back from behind my palate seemed to affect my stomach and poison my digestion. Food did not seem to strengthen me. I had no appetite; didn't relish anything I ate.

"I lost flesh and strength, and as I say when I went to Drs. Copeland and Bell I couldn't speak above a whisper, under their treatment the trouble in my throat has disappeared, I can speak well, I have regained my health and strength, have no more headaches, no more pains in the chest, I eat well, sleep well and feel well, I am another man—a well man to-day."

DEEMING A QUEER MAN

His Strange Action Since Conviction.

Fears that the Man Will Commit Suicide.

His Action on the Stand in Maligning His Victims Has Lost Him Whatever Sympathy He May Have Had.

Melbourne, May 3.—The behavior of Deeming since he was sentenced yesterday has become more inexplicable than ever. There is a strange mixture of sense and insanity in all he says and does, the latter evidently assumed. No doubt he is laboring under intense excitement, finding himself baffled at every point. He expected to procure a postponement of his trial, and next a division of the jury on the plea of mental aberration put forward for him, and in delay he had even hope of making his escape. Now he is bent on an appeal; but there is no chance for him in this; no court in christendom would grant it. His atrocious lying and maligning the memory of his victims has lost for him what little sympathy he might have inspired by his indomitable courage.

The jailers fear that under the breaking down of all his hopes, Deeming may become actually mad or attempt suicide, for, although in high spirits, assumed or otherwise, he sometimes drops into a moodiness which looks ugly and dangerous, and when to approach or speak to him provokes threatening looks and language.

All these things being considered by the jail authorities, it was decided to put the prisoner in irons, and this resolution was carried into effect to-day.

BEN BUTLER SUED.

Jewett Wants Fifty Thousand for a Breach of Contract.

Boston, May 3.—A suit was begun yesterday in the supreme court, brought by the C. F. Jewett Publishing company against Gen. B. F. Butler, for $50,000 damages. The plaintiff claims that the defendant has violated the terms of a contract made with it on September 15, 1880, wherein it is alleged he agreed to give it the work of publishing a book, and then refused to permit it to do the work, though it has been ever ready and willing to do so. The general will have 30 days within which to respond to the allegations.

RELIGION IN THE COURTS

A Big Sensation Created in Detroit.

A Lawyer and a Juryman Discuss the Catholic Church Without Mincing Words.

Detroit, Mich., May 3.—Last Christmas Joseph Bolda was found dead in the Catholic cemetery. Frank Kabst was convicted of manslaughter, and yesterday his Attorney, G. X. M. Collier, moved for a new trial. The evidence was circumstantial and the attorney started the court and created a great sensation by charging that the jury was composed wholly of Catholics and that religious prejudices influenced, to say the least, their verdict.

Kabst had left the Catholic church and joined the ex-communicated Kolasinski faction.

"Catholics," said Mr. Collier, "believe that a member of their church who deserts them has a free ticket to hell without stopping at purgatory. The jury who sat on that case talked religion so loudly that the court officers rapped several times on the door for order. In my opinion the Catholics should not be allowed to serve on juries."

At this Richard Horan, who had sat on the jury that convicted Kabst, sprang to his feet, and in spite of commands from the court for silence exclaimed: "I'll not sit idly by and hear any man run down my church. It's the Holy Catholic church, and the body and soul of all churches."

CASE OF LONDON JUSTICE.

Money Makes the Mare Go in all Countries.

London, May 3.—The case of Bigelow versus Jeffreys came on for trial before Mr. Justice Hawkins yesterday.

Counsel for the plaintiff said that Mrs. Maria Bigelow was the wife of a gentleman who was formerly connected with the United States government. Prior to 1891 the Bigelows resided in a large mansion in Cromwell road and gave many social entertainments. They became in financial trouble and borrowed £400 from Jefferys, the defendant, who was one of the most intimate friends of the family.

The Bigelows' house and furniture was finally sold by bill of sale. Their friends subscribed enough money to enable them to take a small flat and Mrs. Bigelow supported the family by dressmaking. Jefferys, who was unable to recover his £400, obtained judgment against the Bigelows and levied upon the furniture in the flat.

Action was brought against Jefferys to recover damages for trespass. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

One of the most enthusiastic supporters of the Keeley liquor, opium and tobacco cure, is Hon. Joseph Medill, proprietor of the Chicago Tribune. About a year and a half ago he thoroughly investigated the claims made for the Keeley remedies, and becoming convinced that these remedies were what they claimed to be—a certain cure for these diseases—he published the result of his investigations.

Although he was assailed at first on all sides, he now has the satisfaction of having his position in recommending the Keeley cure vindicated by thousands of living witnesses, who have tried it successfully.

There are only two genuine Keeley Institutes in Ohio, at Marysville and at Madisonville. The home treatment for the tobacco habit is remarkably successful. Address, Campion Put the Ball Over the Fence in the Ninth Inning and That Settled It.

Although Minneapolis outbatted Toledo yesterday her hits were not opportune and Toledo's errors were not costly, a state of things that very seldom work to the advantage of the Toledo club. Billy Alvord's apostles got a move on themselves yesterday and won a game from Columbus, knocking Duke O'Day all over the lot, and winning 12 to 3, with the hits 16 off O'Day and 5 off Wadsworth. Kansas City also added another lost game to Milwaukee's column.

In the League, Philadelphia defeated Cleveland 3 to 2; Chicago won from Boston 4 to 1, and Washington made Von Der Ahe's heart sick 10 to 8.

Van Dyke has signed a Western League contract and Indianapolis is trying to get him. The most popular thing Toledo could do would be to put Van Dyke on the Toledo pay roll. The nearer the owners approach the splendid team of two years ago the better will the people be satisfied, and here is a chance to secure a good man.

—::—::—

Milwaukee still leads the Western with Kansas City and Columbus close on her heels, with Toledo, Omaha and St. Paul just as much in it as though they were first.

—::—::—

Some club should take compassion on the Indianapolis team and let it win a game. The Hoosiers are the team that the Cincinnati Enquirer picked out as a factor in the pennant race, all because "Nick" Carpenter played third. Verily base ball is very much like the Irishman's flea.

—::—::—

The attendance in the Western League cities has not been up to what was expected. What is the cause? Has Western League ball deteriorated? Is the quality of ball played this year as good as in former years? It will not take the patrons long to find out. They will patronize good ball whether the club be called the "Little Potatoes Hard to Peel," or the "Giants of the Dark Ages." Its base ball people want, and they don't care a continental whether the uniforms are red or green. This is a year when enthusiasm cannot be built upon cheap clap-clap. It's a plain every-day case of play ball. Circus tactics and second-rate theater practices of putting all the show on the boards and none on the stage will not work.

Notes.

Alvord continues his hard batting. He will play excellent ball so long as he can hit, but when his batting drops look out for a sulk.

Munyan played third for the Minnies yesterday.

The League got a dose of Western rain yesterday.

Gumbert against Clarkson yesterday was a battle royal.

AT THE TOLEDO THEATERS

The Pay Train at the People's Theater.

Ezra Kendall at Wheeler's Next Week — Eileen Oge Presented at in Excellent Shape.

"The Pay Train," which will be the attraction at the People's Theater this week, was presented for the first time last evening and the performance was greeted with a crowded house, notwithstanding the bad weather. The play is a bright comedy drama, the plot of which has been previously printed in the Bee, and it deserves all the applause that was so heartily bestowed upon it last night. The dialogue and action is strong, besides which are several sensational realistic effects, very cleverly worked by elaborate scenery and stage mechanism, such as a train passing at full speed, the uncoupling of a train in motion and a boiler explosion and wreck of a coal car on an incline track at the coal mine. This latter, which forms a tableau, and closes the performance, was most thrillingly real and made a most exciting climax.

Miss Florence Bindley, who leads the company, is a delightful little soubrette, whose ability as an actress is above the ordinary, besides which she introduces some pleasing songs and dances and a solo on the autoharp. All of her specialties were encored.

Her supporting company is fair. Drew A. Morton, in the dual part of Reuben Cole and Charles Burton, being especially good.

"Eileen Oge."

The charming Irish drama "Eileen Oge" was presented to a large and enthusiastic audience at Wheeler's last evening. Rt. Rev. Bishop Horstman and a number of visiting and local clergy occupied boxes, which were handsomely decorated with the National colors.

Seldom has an amateur company given a finer presentation than that rendered by the Immaculate Conception Dramatic club last evening.

The following was the cast of characters:

Patrick O'Donnel	J. A. Downey
Harry Loftus	Ralph Zint
Mr. McLean	Wm. Smith
Brian O'Farrel	Geo. J. O'Toole
Father Mahony	James Christy
Mr. Moriarity	D. J. Cotter
John Thomas	P. H. Downey
Tim (The Penman)	J. E. McGinnis
Darby Flinn	John Holland
Officer Williams	Wm. Coyle
Andy	Thomas Herr
Creagh	John Foley
Talbot	Henry Herbert
Eileen Moriarity	Margaret Partland
Norah O'Donnel	Winnie Phelan
Mrs. O'Donnel	Bee Cassidy
Bridget McGuire	Susie McGuire

Soldiers, Peasants, Haymakers, Etc.

The dancing and whistling of John Holland, the singing of Geo. J. O'Toole, and the clever acting of Miss Susie McGuire, were the chief features, though all were unusually good in their respective parts.

P. H. Downey was director, J. E. McGinnis stage manager, J. J. Flood business manager, Joseph Uhl leader of the orchestra, and W. C. Coyle door tender. The orchestra was excellent—as good in some respects as the regular orchestra.

Ezra Kendall.

"The Pair of Kids," one of the brightest of the few of the innumerable farce comedies on the stage, will be the attraction at the People's next week. Ezra Kendall, the author of this funny play, in his familiar character of "Jiles Button," the old country "jay," is said to be very amusing, and our theater-goers will have an opportunity to laugh at his grotesqueities to their hearts content. This well-known laughing success is now in its seventh season.

FACTS FROM FINDLAY.

Natural Gas Troubles—The Congressional Fight.

Findlay, O., May 3.—(Special)—The congressional fight among the four congressional aspirants in this end of the new Eighth district is still on and looks as if it would remain so until the time of the convention at Kenton, the 24th inst. The city caucuses for selecting the delegates will be held all over the city on Wednesday evening. Each candidate will try and have their own friends selected.

The city of Toledo is gaining quite a contingent of Findlay people this spring. Among the number are Wm. Dransfield, A. C. Daugherty, two well-known furniture men, who intend to go into business there; W. A. Willelt, who has entered the employ of C. A. Harley & Co.; S. W. Laird, who has gone into the restaurant business, and a number of others.

A new nail mill, 80x100 feet in size will be added to the plant of the Salem wire nail works in this city this summer, which will largely increase the working force. The company will undoubtedly build a rod mill here in the near future.

The annual commencement of the city High school will take place at Turner opera house on Wednesday evening, May 20.

A lively class fight has been going on at Findlay college for several days past, caused by the juniors putting out a flag for '93 from the belfry, causing the other classes to be very angry. Considerable excitement prevailed during the melee.

The old trouble between the city gas trustees and B. P. Foster, of the electric light works, regarding the price of fuel for his plant to furnish light for the city, is about to be settled satisfactorily to all parties concerned. The difficulty has caused much litigation in the different courts.

STRENGTHENING FOOD FOR INVALIDS.

In many acute diseases, and in the convalescent's struggle for health, proper food is of even more value than medicine. Physicians unite in stating that lactated food, which can be prepared in so many tempting ways, is easily digested and has the strength-giving and muscle-forming properties of the best beef. In several recent medical reports, this food is given as the only one that the patient could retain.

DO YOU WANT GOLD?

Cripple Creek is not a health resort. It is a wealth resort. Quite a difference! Location, near Pike's Peak, in Colorado. Gold—bright, yellow gold, is found as grass roots and in the rock formation.

Reliable experts claim this is to-day the richest camp in Colorado. Assays average $100 per ton, and have run as high as $5,000. One hundred people a day are now rushing to Fremont, chief town of the district.

The chance of a life-time is worth looking after!

You can get there quickly and comfortably by taking Santa Fe Route. Only line with no change of cars from Chicago, Kansas City and other principal cities to Florissant, nearest railroad station, with daily stages to Fremont.

A Findlay Man Falls Into Uncle Sam's Clutches.

Frank F. Andrews, of th ehotel firm of Andrews & Knapp, Findlay, was arrested last evening by Deputy United States Marshal Latimer, on the charge of failing to pay the special liquor tax. Andrews will have a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Hall this afternoon.

OVER FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS

Awarded by a Jury Against the Lake Shore Road.

Yesterday afternoon the jury in the case of John H. Sacker against the Lake Shore Railroad company, returned a verdict of $4,125 damages for the plaintiff. It was an action to recover $20,000 damages for personal injury. The plaintiff's left hand was crushed while he was in the act of making a coupling.

WILL HAVE A SMOKER,

After a Hare and Hounds Chase at the Cycling Club.

The Toledo Cycling club has made arrangements for a most enjoyable evening next Thursday. Early in the evening there will be a hare and hounds chase started from the club house and the members will return in time to participate in a smoker that will occupy the remainder of the evening.

THE BRICKLAYERS.

The Weather is Against an Adjustment of Their Trouble.

There is no change in the bricklayers' trouble. Gorman Bros. have not conceded the 50 cents an hour. Most of the smaller employers have done so, but the weather helps to keep the question open. Men cannot lay bricks while spring showers are falling as they have been this week, and until work presses an agreement will not be reached.

MR. CANFIELD BELIEVES

The Detroit-Cleveland Line of Steamers Will Make Toledo.

Mr. S. Canfield, who has been foremost in the work of having the Detroit-Cleveland line of passenger and freight steamers make Toledo this season, says it has not been definitely settled whether the boats will call here or not.

"No definite action has been taken," he said to a Bee, "and I expect to get a favorable report inside of a week or so.

WILL BE SETTLED.

Journal Entry Agreed Upon in the Claflin-Miller Controversy.

The attorneys of the Claflin Paving Co.-Miller controversy have determined upon a journal entry disposing of the undisputed claims, as was announced in the Bee yesterday, and is now on file in common pleas court. There are three disputed claims, viz., Harvey P. Platt, $8,000; Albion Stone company, of Cleveland, $1,000; Waynesburgh Brick company, $1,000.

SAMUEL CLARKE

Is Out Again, Feeling Reasonably Hale and Hearty.

Mr. Samuel Clarke, the stone contractor, who was shot some weeks ago on Jefferson street by Lethart, the carpenter, was at his office to-day, and appears to be in reasonably good shape after the siege through which he has passed. He is still subject to considerable pain at times, but anticipates complete recovery. Mr. Clarke is receiving the congratulations of his friends over his lucky escape and final restoration.

WANT A WILL BROKEN.

Suit to That Effect Filed in Common Pleas Court.

Action was instituted in common pleas court to-day by Joseph W. Deck et al, against Henrietta Deck et al, legatees of the will of Abraham Deck, to set aside the provisions of the instrument.

The plaintiffs allege that the writing filed in probate court is not the last will of the deceased. Also that at the time of the drafting of its provision the deceased was of unsound mind, and that by reason of bodily injury, extreme age, and protracted sickness, was mentally incapacitated from making a will.

THE LAKE SHORE.

Another Shake-up in the Operating Department.

The Cleveland Leader of this morning is authority for the following statements as to changes in the Lake Shore:

Another series of changes in the Lake Shore operating department are about to take place. Superintendent J. M. Watts, of the Toledo division, has, it is authentically reported, tendered his resignation, to take effect at an early date. He will be succeeded, it is said, by J. K. Russell, who on New Year's day became superintendent of the Franklin division. A. S. Newell, of the Lansing division, will succeed Mr. Russell on the Franklin division, and D. G. Sutfin, agent of the company at Buffalo, will be given the superintendency of the Lansing division.

MAY GET INTO TROUBLE.

Miscreants Who Go About Destroying Plants, Trees and Shrubbery.

Harvey P. Platt is greatly incensed at the vandalism exhibited by certain parties, who take pleasure in destroying shrubbery and plants planted in the front yard of his home on the corner of Superior and Chestnut streets.

Mr. Platt also has two beautiful magnolia trees in the front yard and these vandals have gone so far as to endeavor to destroy and mar the beauty of the trees. The miscreants work at night, and not satisfied with obtaining what blossoms they desire, tear away and lacerate the limbs. This pratice is becoming too general all over the city. Property owners are willing to throw their well-preserved lawns into the street to assist in beautifying the city and they should be protected.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE RACES

Over the Continent of North America.

Prof. Wright had his usual large and attentive audience at High school hall last night. The subject under discussion was the distribution of the races over the North American continent. The theory that the primitive inhabitants drifted over from Asia by the nearest land route was upheld by the discoveries of relics that showed kinship, and by similar traits of character and habits of life, that come by descent to the North American Indians, such as the tracing of lineal descent through the mother and the communistic idea of property. While there is, of necessity, much speculation attending this study, there are also many convincing discoveries which can scarcely be coincidences. Prof. Wright is an explorer and investigator in his own right. He dares to disagree with accepted authorities when his own observations lead him to do so. The next lecture will treat of the physiological branch of the subject, illustrated by a few necessary stereopticon views.

NOLLIED THE CASE.

Willis Palmer, a County Prisoner, is Now a Free Man.

Prosecuting Attorney Barber yesterday afternoon entered a nolle in the case of the state against Willis Palmer. The defendant was indicted by the last grand jury on the charge of forging book contracts on the Carruthers Publishing company of this city.

CUMMINGS-RICHARDS.

A Matter of $10,000 for a Husband's Affections.

The case of Carrie M. Cummings against Mary B. Richards is on trial in Judge Lemmon's room of the common pleas court to-day. It is an action to recover $10,000 damages for the alleged alienation of the plaintiff's husband's affections.

DEATH OF S. H. KEELER.

An Old Resident Passed Away This Afternoon.

Mr. S. H. Keeler died this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence on lower Summit street, and another pioneer of the Maumee valley has joined the silent majority. He was 72 years of age.

Mr. Keeler was for years engaged in the mercantile trade, and then formed a private bank with Horace Holcomb, which remained as one of the solid institutions of the city until it went out of business, being merged into the Holcomb National bank.

The deceased was well and favorably known, and his death will be learned with regret by a host of friends.

MISS CARRIE CARD.

Her Death Occurred Yesterday Afternoon at Her Home.

The High school flag floats out at half-mast to-day to tell of the death of a popular and beloved teacher and friend, Miss Carrie Card, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Card has not been well since she suffered with the grip two years ago, and one with less will power would have given up long before she did, which was just after the Easter vacation. Up to that time she attended to her school duties faithfully. She was also a devoted daughter to the mother who passed away on the 24th of January.

Miss Card has been confined to her bed about a week, during which time she failed rapidly. She was a graduate of the Toledo High school 21 years ago, and has taught more or less since that time. A few years ago a prize was offered to the most popular school teacher, to be decided by votes, and Miss Card proved to be the one. She will be greatly missed by innumerable friends. Her survivors are a half-brother, Mr. Card, and cousin, John A. Waite.

The funeral will occur to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church. The High school will be closed during the funeral, and Messrs. H. W. Compton, T. L. Richmond, H. C. Adams, G. S. Mills, W. Stuart and W. M. McPherson will act as pall-bearers.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

Announcements Showing That This Is a Busy Week.

The May meeting of the Toledo Suffrage society will be held to-morrow afternoon, 3 to 5 o'clock, at room 9, Fort Industry block. At this meeting announcements will be made of the delegates to the state suffrage convention in Salem, and much other important and interesting business will be transacted. All women welcomed.

The monthly meeting of the Union of Unions will be held in the Baptist church on Heston street, with the Lucy Webb Hayes union, on Thursday afternoon. The Dorr street cars pass Heston street.

The city branch of the King's Daughters holds its annual meeting at St. Paul's M. E. church Thursday afternoon. Representatives from each church have been asked to name a candidate for vice president.

The annual meeting of the Ys will be held on Friday afternoon in the First Congregational church, beginning at 4 o'clock. All interested in the noble work of the Ys are invited to attend and listen to the yearly reports.

On Friday afternoon, 4 to 5:30, the members of the Colloquial club and their friends will discuss the question: "Was there ever a great woman poet?" There will be but one meeting after this of the club before the summer vacation.

The first W. C. T. U. parlor meeting will be held with Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Wilmington, of 519 Locust street, next Friday afternoon.

THE ALDERMEN

Begin Late, but Have Not a Great Amount of Business.

The board of aldermen convened last evening after the long session of the ways and means committee and transacted the business before them with little discussion.

A resolution presented by Mr. Hall for a crosswalk at the junction of John street and Vermont avenue was adopted.

A resolution presented by Mr. Hassenzahl was adopted directing the street commissioner to repair a drain on Summit avenue at the Manhattan mills.

Mr. Hassenzahl also presented an ordinance to open Niagara street from Buckeye to Galena. This was referred to the street committee.

A petition presented by Mr. Hartford, to accept deed of property in Chesebro's addition, was referred to the street committee.

The property owners on Ontario and Jefferson streets sent in a communication stating that the Robison Electric Railway company had abandoned their tracks on these streets and that therefore their franchise should be forfeited and the street commissioner should remove the rails and wires from the street. Referred to the committee on railroads.

A protest from the Lake Shore Railroad company against the proposed improvement of Junction avenue was referred to the street committee.

The report of the ways and means committee was approved and business from the board of councilmen was all passed.

APPRAISING RAILROADS.

That's What the County Auditors Are Now Doing.

County Auditor Jones to-day assessed the Swan Creek railroad property. The valuation was fixed at $1,000 per mile, which is the same as last year. The Wabash was assessed yesterday at $12,000 per mile, being no change in the valuation.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

Of the Marriage of Captain and Mrs. Edward O'Dwyer.

Yesterday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Captain and Mrs. Edward O'Dwyer and they celebrated their silver wedding in a befitting manner last evening. Their spacious home at 363 Lafayette street was thrown open to their friends and a large number of guests enjoyed their hospitality and spent a most delightful evening. Among them were Mayor Emmick, Judge Sala, Judge P. A. McGahan, Police Commissioner J. A. Waring, Mr. M. C. Fogerty, Mr. and Mrs. John Bolan, Mr. and Mrs. August Kruse, Mr. and Mrs. George Sheets, Mr. and Mrs. Morganthaler, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Cavanaugh, Mr. and Mrs. John Manly, Mr. and Mrs. John Daly, Mrs. Berney, Miss Berney, Mr. M. J. Cooney, and many others of the genial chief's host of friends and of his good wife. The evening was spent with music, songs and dancing until a late hour and it was altogether an occasion to be remembered. Many elegant gifts were presented, prominent among which was a fine silver water service from the police force.

BADLY CUT.

A Serious Affray at a Hungarian Wedding

On the East Side—One of the Guests Gets Four Stabs in the Back.

A stabbing affray that may yet prove fatal occurred last night at the saloon of Joseph Falrich, on the River road below the shipyards. At this place a Hungarian wedding party was being held and some of the guests became rather hilarious.

About midnight a sensation was created by Michael Yamber, who staggered into the room and fell upon the floor, bleeding profusely. He had been stabbed in the back just outside and was in a dangerous condition.

Dr. Beckwith was called and the police notified at once. The physician found that the man had been stabbed in the back four times and his condition was very dangerous.

The circumstances of the affair are hard to get at, but Yamber states that he was set upon by three men just outside of the house, and by one of them he was cut. He could not say who his assailants were.

Early this morning the police arrested Michael Donco and John Vango, two suspicious Hungarians, and when they were taken before Yamber he identified them as two of the men who attacked him. They were locked up at the central station, and on Donco was found an ugly dirk knife, but there were no blood stains on it or anything to indicate that it had been used in stabbing.

Yamber is reported to be somewhat better to-day, and may recover.

FROM THE HEART

THAT IS THE WAY MINISTERS SPEAK.

A Most Wonderful Array of Outspoken Statements from Prominent Ministers of the Gospel.

No class of people in the community have a deeper interest in the welfare of the people than ministers of the gospel. They are brought close to the members of their congregation, study their wants, and are consulted on all subjects. Of late years, pastors are becoming well-versed in those things which contribute to the physical as well as the spiritual comfort of their people. Many pastors are also physicians, and all seek earnestly for those things which they believe to be worthy and valuable.

The following statements made by ministers of the gospel, bearing upon this important point are most valuable:

Rev. S. P. Smith, Marblehead, Mass.: "For years I suffered from complications of the liver, which caused biliousness, and finally threw me into bilious fever. I was attended by a skillful physician, but still I suffered periodical bilious attacks and intense pain from the formation of gallstones. I finally was obliged to suspend my pastoral work, when, after a thorough treatment with a most wonderful cure, I was entirely restored to health and was able to work harder than ever. My appetite returned, my digestion was perfect, and I feel that I owe my restoration entirely to Warner's Safe Cure. I take pleasure in recommending it as a great remedy for all diseases of the liver."

Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Washington, D. C.: "I take pleasure in stating that I have for many years been acquainted with the well-known Warner's Safe Cure, and with its remarkable curative efficiency in obstinate and so-called incurable cases of Bright's disease in this city. In some of these cases, which seemed to be in the last stages, and which had been given up by practitioners of both schools, the speedy change wrought by this remedy seemed but little less than miraculous. I am convinced that for Bright's disease, in all its stages, no remedy heretofore discovered can be held for one moment in comparison with this."

Rev. Benjamin Hall, New Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y.: "I suffered for a long time from malaria. I ran down in weight 30 pounds, could not sleep, and was unable to take care of my parish. I consulted one of the best pathologists in the city of New York, who found my fluids badly impregnated with albumen mucous, with hyaline casts abundant. I commenced Warner's Safe Cure and began to mend rapidly. My back ceased to ache, the malarial symptoms disappeared, and I now weigh more than ever before. After my recovery I had another analysis made, when my fluid proved to be entirely free from casts, with only a slight trace of albumen. The doctor said the casts were of the most dangerous character, and that I had had a very narrow escape.

Rev. Henry C. Westwood, D. D., Providence, R. I., declares: "Ten years ago I used Warner's Safe Cure and derived so much benefit from it that I was led to voluntarily write a testimonial in its favor. Since then some of my friends have proved the virtues of the medicine, and recently a relative has been greatly relieved by its use. I therefore beg leave to place more emphasis upon the opinion of this remedial agent, expressed by me some ten years ago."

Rev. J. P. Arnold, Camden, Tenn., makes the following statement: "For eight years I suffered from Bright's disease of the kidneys. The torture I endured no tongue can tell. One day I was laid up with an abscess, which discharged pus for twenty months. The best doctors in the country attended me, but could give no relief. Two abscesses were running constantly, and, in fact, they only ceased to run after I began using Warner's Safe Cure, which, I am pleased to say, restored me to perfect health."

Rev. S. B. Bell, D. D., formerly pastor of First Presbyterian church, Kansas City, Mo., asserts: "I have been most wonderfully delivered from many paroxysms of unendurable torture by Warner's Safe Cure. Its virtues should be known by all the world."

Rev. William C. Powers, Greenwood, S. C., makes the following graphic assertion: "My wife suffered for years from an almost constant disposition to pass urine, which was done with great difficulty, and in very small quantities at a time. The pain accompanying the discharge was excruciating. She was treated by three of the most skillful physicians, but without any perceptible improvement. She was completely restored to health by the use of Warner's Safe Cure."

Can you not see that such earnest and outspoken statements as the above come from the heart, that they are sincere, and that they are made because these ministers of the gospel, know beyond question of what they speak? And does it not show how valuable this great cure becomes to those who are in need?

"Reed and Rusk," what a jingling campaign holler that would make; and it would be all "holler."

In last week's political conventions every state had its favorite son to mention except New Hampshire. Poor Mr. Blair.

Ferdinand Ward gained four years of freedom by good behavior in prison. If he can behave as well outside, he may yet life the life and die the death of a decent fellow.

If President Harrison doesn't remove Commissioner Raum on the strength of Raum's own testimony and that of his friends, there is but a single conclusion to arrive at: Mr. Harrison, for some reason, is afraid of Mr. Raum.

Henry Stanley, of Africa, when he was on his lecturing tour in this country boasted of his American citizenship. Now, if reports be true, he is trying to break into the English parliament and get a seat. Henry was after the dollars in this country; he is after honor in the land of Dorothea.

In the selection of minister to France President Harrison acknowledges that Massachusetts is a doubtful state in the fall election. Personally the candidate has much to commend him, not the least recommendation being that he is a great grandson of the great Thomas Jefferson of Virginia, who was minister to France, 1787-9.

The National Civil Service Reform league re-elected George William Curtis president and resolved that President Harrison had broken the pledges made to the league and to the people. Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt approved the resolution, of course, but took occasion to commend the present republican administration. The good folk are getting a little mixed.

It is veriest bosh to talk of loss to the democratic party of the votes of the Carolinas, Georgia and other southern state because of the defeat of the Bland bill. Southern politicians are not the ignoramuses this talk makes them out to be. They are not going to desert the party that stands against undue tariff-taxation and has defeated a force bill, in order to throw a presidential election to a party that has no more leaning toward free silver than their own. The south is as solidly democratic as it was in 1888.

The plea of guilty of forgery closes the business career of Ralph K. Paige, the Painesville banker. It is the most astounding downfall of a man who was believed to be the soul of integrity. The Paige name in that locality stood for honor and uprightness and no man of the name was more thought of than Ralph K. Possessed of wealth and standing there seemed to be no occasion for him to deviate from the path of recitude, but, like many other men who knew not when or how to let well enough alone, he fell, and prison doors will now close upon a prison-striped man, shut out from society, a punishment well deserved, but a warning to others that will go unheeded.

The probability is that President Harrison will be renominated at Minneapolis, but it is a certainty that if this is done it will be because the leaders of the party see no hope of uniting on any one else. Never was a probable candidate more disliked and distrusted within the ranks of his own party. With all state conventions refraining from instructing delegates, with a remembrance upon him of the emergency which thrust him forward as the compromise candidate at Chicago in 1888, and with a knowledge that the same political complications wait upon the Minneapolis gathering, uneasy must lie the head that wears grandfather's hat, swelled as it is with a second term ambition.

New York City is positively amusing, through its newspapers, on the subject of funds for public memorials. To-day it's a hurrah that the school children "shall be allowed" to contribute to the "silver service fund for the new cruiser." Then it's an uproar about the "Washington Arch"; how the dollars are "pouring in," substantiated by a tabulated statement of six school teachers who have paid in from 75 cents to $2 apiece during the last 48 hours. Yesterday a flamboyant sheet had its first page covered with a picture of Gen. Porter standing by a contribution box which is labeled "Grant Fund," and coins and checks are being showered into it by visible hands, labeled "manufacturer," "dry-goods merchant," "lumber merchant," etc. The legend is: "the right man in the right place" (meaning Porter). It isn't alone that New York is slow, but she makes such a bazing big noise about the small returns. When one recalls her many "patriotic millionaires," the whole situation is what show people call "funny."

Another chapter has been written in eastern newspapers about "how to get into society." Herbert Roosevelt Van Rensselar dropped in upon Norwalk, Conn., with that blue-blooded name writ across his cards. He told stories of Ward McAllister and the Astors, mixing himself up in them. He captured the high-toned belles of Norwalk; he got the chair of professor of languages in a high-toned school and got himself elected president of a high-toned musical organization. One day there came along a man who said "How dy' do, Adler," and the Roosevelt-Van-Rensselar was stripped of his pretentions and there stood a former clerk in a New York clothing house. "I always thought he had a peculiar nose," said one of the victims. And of such is the kingdom of society.

FOREIGN REPRESENTATION.

Ottawa, Ont., May 3.—The representation of the Canadian government at Washington, by the addition of an official to the staff of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, formed the subject of an animated discussion in the house of commons yesterday. The opinion displayed by the debate was generally in favor of having such representation.

DR. L. B. PARKER DEAD.

Liverpool, O., May 3.—Dr. L. B. Parker, the oldest and one of the most eminent and successful physicians of Medina county, after nearly sixty years of active practice, died at Liverpool, April 28, aged eighty-two years four months and twelve days.

PARKHURST INDORSED.

Baltimore, May 3.—At the regular weekly meeting of the Presbyterian ministers held yesterday, resolutions indorsing the methods of Rev. Dr. Parkhurst were passed without dissent, and a copy of them ordered to be sent to New York.

IMPORTANT SALE.

The Protestant Hospital Trustees Sell Five Acres

Of the Institution's Property to Moderwell & Whittesley, Who Will Plat and Sell it in Lots.

Yesterday Messrs. Moderwell & Whittesley, the new real estate firm, located in the Law building, purchased from the trustees of the Protestant Orphans' home the north five acres of the property belonging to the institution, out Lagrange street. The consideration is at present unknown.

The sale will enable the trustees to meet many exigencies that they find in the work now under way.

Moderwell & Whittesley will at once plat the tract and put it on the market in lots to suit purchasers.

"PEACE IF WE FIGHT FOR IT."

The Bee in the past two weeks has taken pleasure in making extracts from the republican papers of Ohio, with a view to demonstrating the harmony which prevails in the ranks of the party. The Cleveland World, a very rabid organ, turns its batteries on our own James M. Brown, and since he has recovered from the little fracas in the Lucas county convention, he is undoubtedly prepared to digest the following lines, which are found in the World. There evidently appears but little question that harmony exists in copious quantities, as will be seen:

Jim Brown, P. M.

The one and only self-adjustable, back-action, stamped-in-the-bottle, copyrighted trade-mark Jim Brown, postmaster of Toledo, was present at the convention.

There was so much else to write about on Wednesday and Thursday that we were not able to do Jim Brown, P. M., justice until now.

This is the same Jim Brown, who was not then P. M., but simply plain Jim of Toledo, who in the national republican convention of 1888 mounted a table and made the observation in a loud voice that any man in the Ohio delegation who did not vote for John Sherman first, last and all the time better prepare to be sent home on ice.

This speech which, if Jim had been an anarchist, would have been considered in the nature of "inciting to murder" was suddenly terminated by Gov. Foraker, the leader of the Ohio delegation, unceremoniously pushing him from the table.

Was Jim drunk at the time he made this incendiary remark?

Oh, no, Jim doesn't drink. He was in his normal condition.

Well, Jim with the title of P. M., presumably obtained through his great Chicago utterance, was in attendance at the Cleveland convention in all his glory. He was this year full of similar great notions of what the Ohio delegation to Minneapolis ought to do.

In a conference of leaders on Wednesday evening, after the probabilities and possibilities of things had been gone over pretty fully, Jim Brown, P. M., arose and made the disinterested proposition that the Ohio delegation should and must be instructed to support Benjamin Harrison first, last and all the time. If the time comes when everybody else has deserted Harrison the Ohio delegation should still be leading the forlorn hope. If it is perfectly clear that Gov. McKinley or any other Ohio man can be nominated the Ohio delegation should not, according to Jim Brown, P. M., recognize that fact but should continue to vote for Harrison and only after other states have nominated the Ohio man come to his support.

When this climax was reached in the speech of Mr. Brown, P. M., several persons who were present almost fell out of their chairs exclaiming as they did so "Oh, gracious," or something more expressive.

But Jim Brown, P. M., was undismayed and as Gov. Foraker was not present to push him over he continued to the end.

As we consider this and other utterances of the Toledo postmaster we are led to exclaim with the poet:

Oh, Jim, our Jim, oh Jim, P. M.,
What should we do without ye;
Stick to your office, boom te ra.
And damned be they who rout ye.

COLUMBUS NEWS.

Chas. E. Perkins, of Akron, Made Chief Engineer.

Columbus, O., May 3.—Gov. McKinley appointed Chas. E. Perkins, of Akron, chief engineer of public works for the term beginning May 21, 1892, ending May 21, 1894, subject to the consent of the senate.

He also revoked, for good cause shown, the commission of Forest Fordham as policeman for the Toledo & Ohio Central Railway company, and the Toledo, Columbus & Cincinnati Railway company, to take effect forthwith. Forest Fordham is a resident of Toledo.

Lieut. Johnson, of the Tenth regiment, U. S. A., together with Assistant Adjutant General Howe, will inspect the battalion of Cadets of the Ohio Normal university, May 3, 1892. They also act as judges in the annual prize drill contest for stand of colors.

STRIKE OF RAILROAD MEN.

Cincinnati, O., May 3.—Two hundred men on the Kentucky Central and Louisville & Nashville railways, including transfer hands, switchmen, yardmen, section hands and laborers, have struck on account of a reduction in wages from $1.35 to $1.25 a day. They predict all the men along the line will join the strike.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The murdering of sweethearts is getting altogether too frequent. The frenzied lover should be made an awful example without delay.—Boston Herald.

The harmony about which the republicans talk so pleasantly appears to be a twin brother of the peace that once on a time reigned in Warsaw.—New York World.

The republican party has principles. The democracy lacks them.—New York Tribune. On the other hand, the democracy has principle. The republican party lacks that.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The resistance of European labor unions to the tyranny of greedy capitalists has been debased to a general protest against existing institutions and a desire to gain a bloody retaliation upon the governing classes; to pull down everything before commencing the work of building anew.—Boston Advertiser.

A republican organ quotes the old saying "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad" as applicable to the sugar and coal trusts. The organ is informed that the cases are different. Whom the trusts would destroy they first make slaves. And when the slaves get mad they will destroy the trusts.—Chicago Times.

The Sherman and Foraker people in Ohio got together in the last moment, just as war in open convention was about to be declared, and settled their differences by a compromise, electing McKinley and Hahn, Sherman men, and Foraker and Bushnell of the adverse faction as delegates-at-large to Minneapolis. This was a triumph for Foraker in forcing a compromise from the sweeping claims of the Shermanites.—Pittsburg Post.

The tenacity with which President Harrison sticks to Raum is remarkable and unexplainable. Throwing aside all that is alleged against Mr. Raum in his official capacity, as the incumbent of a most important office, the president should dismiss him because of his own testimony and his admitted irregularities. To keep him in place is to shoulder a load of misdoing. The pension office has been a breeding house of public scandals for the past three years.—Philadelphia Record.

The relations between Newfoundland and the Dominion of Canada are very much strained at present, and it is not likely that a relation of brotherly love will soon be established. The trouble grows partly out of the fisheries question. Newfoundland is much more favorably inclined toward the United States than Canada is. It would not hesitate long, if the way were open, to enter the American Union, and no one need be much surprised if such a transfer of allegiance takes place in the near future.—Denver Republican.

STONE CUTTERS QUIT.

They Want More Money and Shorter Hours of Labor.

Gloucester, Mass., May 3.—The general strike of the granite cutters in the Cape Ann quarries, which has been anticipated for some time, has been inaugurated. A general notice was sent out, and the workmen at Rockport and Pidgeon Grove joined in the strike and some 2,000 men are idle. The demand is for 25 cents an hour and 9 hours instead of 10. The officers say they fear no serious trouble.

New Haven, Conn., May 3.—Five hundred quarrymen and stone cutters employed in the quarries at Stony Creek and Leets Island went out on a strike because their demands for an increase of 1 cent an hour was not acceded to by the quary owners. The men were receiving 22 cents an hour. They also wanted a reduction of an hour on Saturdays.

Quincy, Mass., May 3.—Work was suspended in all the quarries here. The price list agreed upon May 1, 1890, between the quarrymen and the manufacturers having expired April 30, 1892, it was voted by the quarrymen to suspend work until May 4. On that day if a satisfactory list is not agreed upon the strike will begin in earnest. At present there are 390 members in the quarrymen's union in this city who are idle today awaiting the result.

A LARGE FACTORY

To be Erected on the Corner of Jefferson and Michigan

By Gov. Ashley for the Central Chandelier Company—A Four Story Structure—The Plant to be Doubled.

Arrangements have been completed whereby J. M. and C. S. Ashley will erect a large building for the Central Chandelier company on the corner of Jefferson and Michigan streets, diagonally across from the cyclorama.

The building will be 60x100 feet and four stories high. It will be a substantial building of stone and brick and will cost about $30,000.

President Yargon, of the Central Chandelier company, said to a Bee this morning that the company's present quarters on Summit street were so cramped for the constanly increasing business that it was necessary to have more room.

The building will be rented on a long lease on a basis of $150 foot frontage.

It is also the purpose of the company to double the capacity of its present plant.

The building will be completed about October 1, bu it is possible the company will not move in until January 1. The Central Chandelier proposes having the finet plant of the kind in the country.

THE STRIKE WAS SETTLED

At Least Practically So, for the Present.

An Agreement Reached Pending Further Negotiations, Which Will, No Doubt, Result Satisfactorily.

The Bee last evening announced that 3,000 miners in the Hocking Valley had quit work because of rules adopted by the operators. This morning a turn in affairs hastaken place, and an amicable agreement will likely be reached. The strike could not prove otherwise than disastrous to all concerned.

The following dispatch was received from Glouster, O., by Mr. Hadley:

Mines all idle, except 16. Misunderstanding of instructions from McBride to the miners. C. F. REALS.

Soon after another dispatch came, as follows:

Columbus, May 3.

G. G. Hadley, President Phoenix Coal Co.:

It is agreed to accept double docking, and take down notices pending further negotiations as to additional penalty.

J. S. MORTON.

Mr. Hadley stated to a Bee that the difficulty had about drawn to a close. The matter had been discussed with President John McBride, and everything will be arranged satisfactory. "All we want is clean coal," said Mr. Hadley, "and the docking we care nothing about."

FRATERNAL VISIT

To be Paid by Forsyth Post of the Grand Army

To Fairbank's Post, of Detroit—The Event to Occur on the Evening of May 16—A Presentation Ahead.

There has always been good feeling existing among the members of the Grand Army of Detroit and Toledo. Visits have already been exchanged with happy results, and now another one has been arranged for.

Arrangements were closed last night by which Forsyth post of this city will make a trip to the City of the Straits on the afternoon of May 16, to spend the evening with Fairbanks post. It is expected that fully 500 of the members will join in the parade and excursion.

Among the features of the occasion it is hinted that Forsyth post will take along a magnificent clock of original design, for presentation to Fairbanks post, to adorn its walls.

CHAMPAIGN COUNTY DEMS.

Urbana, O., May 3.—The democratic convention met here and nominated the following ticket: Sheriff, Sherman Huston; auditor, Simon Taylor; prosecutor, C. E. Buroker; surveyor, John H. Games; commissioner, Brice Leathlye; coroner, George W. Pickering; infirmary director, Charles E. Myers; delegates to state convention, J. K. Michael, Robert Henderson, William Kidder, John McGinness, Robert Hunter, Harry Luxon. The resolutions favored tariff reform and endorsed Grover Cleveland.

FARMER TERRIBLY INJURED.

Urbana, O., May 3.—A horrible accident occurred near this city, in which William Chester was horribly injured. He was harrowing, when his team became frightened and started to run. He was thrown in front of the harrow and one of the heavy iron teeth was buried in his back. A wound was made four inches deep and two wide. Two ribs were broken loose from the backbone. It is thought the man will die.

SAID TO BE A FRAUD.

Lima, O., May 3.—A man giving the name of J. W. Fruit is traveling through the southern part of this internal revenue district representing himself as an internal revenue officer and agent, and has been collecting money from tobacco and cigar dealers. The authorities say that he is a fraud and warn every person to look out for him, as no such person of that name is acting in that capacity.

ANNA DICKINSON ILL.

New York, May 23.—Anna E. Dickinson has been at the Fifth Avenue hotel for some time and recently has been very ill and last night it was reported that she was very sick. Dr. Goldwaithe, her physician, was called in and was with the patient for a long time. When he left her he reported that she was better and out of danger.

HARTER IS A CANDIDATE.

Mansfield, O., May 3.—During his recent visit here Congressman Harter said he would be a candidate for renomination for congress in the new Fourteenth district. The convention will be held at Shelby, May 31.

SUIT FOR $30,000.

Canton, O., May 3.—The suit of F. Edward Snyder, the tinner, for $30,000 against Peter G. Albright, the Massillon banker, is up for trial, and is attracting wide attention.

BONDS AND BONDS.

Several Large Issues to be Made

For Natural Gas, Fire Engine Houses, Dredging and Refunding Purposes—City Bonds Sold at a Premium.

The council committee on ways and means spent an hour discussing and arranging city finances, and also resolved upon the issue of a large amount of bonds.

The three lots of bonds mentioned in yesterday's Bee were sold to the Union Savings bank at par and accrued interest and a good premium.

The sinking fund trustees notified the committee that $110,000 of the city's bonds would fall due on July and asked that provision be made for them. The committee approved a resolution to issue refunding bonds for the required amount.

A communication was read from Mr. Harvey P. Platt, notifying the committee that he would hold the city responsible for $40,892.31 which Auditor Walker had paid to the receiver of the Claflin Paving company and John R. Miller. No action was taken, as Solicitor Read stated that the money had been paid to an officer of the court, and it was there that Mr. Platt would be obliged to look for redress.

A bill of $5,214.62 was presented by County Auditor Jones for the city's share of the cost of keeping up the court house park for the past three years. The city auditor was instructed to pay the claim.

Fire Bonds.

Chief Wall and several of the fire commissioners were present and asked the committee to issue bonds in accordance with the enabling act passed by the legislature authorizing the issue of $60,000 in bonds for additional fire engine houses and apparatus.

There was some discussion on this subject, and the majority of the committee were opposed to the issue of the entire amount at once.

Finally Mr. Manchester moved that bonds to the amount of $30,000 be issued for the purpose of securing sites and buildings. This motion was carried.

A resolution was also approved to issue bonds to the amount of $8,000 for the purpose of dredging the harbor.

Gas Bonds.

The gas trustees were also on hand and wanted $100,000 worth of bonds for extending the plant. Auditor Pheatt read the act passed by the legislature authorizing the issue of this amount, and immediately Alderman Leroux made a motion to issue the bonds.

Mr. Huberich made some objections to this, and wanted to know what the bonds and the money were to be used for.

He was answered by Gas Trustee Romeis, who opened up a somewhat lengthy discussion. "This money is needed for drilling new wells, purchasing appliances and laying pipe," said Mr. Romeis. "We cannot use our receipts for that purpose as the money we take in must go to the sinking fund for the payment of bonds, except what is used in running expenses. We need this money to do business on, to increase our territory and lay pipe in the field to connect wells so that the city can be sufficiently supplied with gas. We must have the money in the treasury before we can spend, it and for this reason we were obliged to let go territory worth 13,000,000 feet of gas. We could have had it, but now it is taken by the Northwestern. This money would be of great help in bringing more gas to the city and thus increase our revenue. It is a matter of business and we must have money to do business on.

Mr. Huberich wanted to know if $50,000 would not be sufficient for the present, but Mr. Romeis did not think so.

Mr. Huberich then stated that he did not think the council should issue bonds unless they knew just where the money is to be expended.

Mr. Manchester thought the gas trustees ought to have the money.

Mr. Greene repeated some of the trials that the city gas plant has gone through, and asked that the bonds be issued. Without money they could not compete with the Northwestern, and thus the money already invested in the city gas plant would be lost.

Mr. Barton Smith then asked to be heard and he opposed the issue of the bonds. "I think the law authorizing the issue of these bonds is clearly unconstitutional," said he, "and to save the city expense no bonds should be issued under it until it has been thoroughly investigated."

City Solicitor Read—"It is very evident that unless the council acts just as these gentlemen want them to there will be a fight on this question. I don't think the act is as strong as it might be, but I believe a court of last resort would sustain it and it is the duty of the city to give it a chance."

After more desultory discussion of this character the committee decided to issue the bonds, Messrs. Rutherford and Huberich voting no.

ARCHBISHOP KENRICK.

He Has Never Rallied Since the Jubilee Celebration.

St. Louis, May 3.—A great deal of anxiety has been caused in Catholic circles by Archbishop Kenrick's inability to fill his confirmation engagements. He was compelled on Sunday to disappoint the parish of Holy Trinity in North St. Louis, where he was announced to administer the sacrament. The archbishop seems never to have rallied from the attack of feebleness which seized him shortly after his jubilee celebration.

No Substitutes

For Royal Baking Powder. The "Royal" is shown by all tests, official, scientific, and practical, stronger, purer, and better in every way than all other Baking Powders. Its superiority is privately acknowledged by other manufacturers, and well known by all dealers.

If some grocers try to sell another baking powder in place of the "Royal," it is because of the greater profit. This of itself is good evidence of the superiority of the "Royal." To give greater profit the other must be a lower cost powder, and to cost less it must be made with cheaper and inferior materials, and thus, though selling for the same, give less value to the consumer.

LOOK with suspicion upon every attempt to palm off upon you any baking powder in place of the "Royal." There is no substitute for the "Royal."

LOST POLICY FOUND.

Singular Misadventure of Dr. Lungren's

Life Insurance—One of Two Policies, for $3,000 and $10,000, Missing Since His Death, Found in an Old Trunk.

Ever since Dr. Lungren's death the utmost search failed to find two of his life insurance policies. One for $3,000 and one for $10,000 were made out in the name of his first wife, but she could not remember what had become of them.

The smaller of the two, held by the New York Life Insurance company was found in a singular manner this morning and the check for $3,000 which has been waiting the presentation of the policy since five days after the doctor's death, was paid over to Mrs. Lungren first by General Manager Young.

Mrs. Lungren has naturally been a good deal worried and has thought a great deal over it. Everything was ransacked, but the search was fruitless.

Last evening, while still thinking the matter over, she suddenly remembered that ten or twelve years ago an old trunk had been placed in storage—she did not just remember where.

A search of the different places where it might be stored was made, and this morning the trunk was found at the Moreton Truck and Storage company.

A hasty search brought forth the smaller of the two policies, but the larger one is still missing, though it is believed now that it will be found as the other one was—stored away somewhere.

Attorney W. H. A. Read at once notified Manager Young of the New York Life, and the money was promptly paid over. The other policy is held on the Connecticut Mutual.

It would have been difficult to collect the policy had the document not been found. The divorce would have complicated matters much.

Mrs. Lunger is being congratulated, and her friends hope she will succeed in finding the larger and more important document.

PINKHAM'S . PROVERBIAL . PHILOSOPHY . . .

A woman best understands a woman's ills.

At the age of fifty, Mrs. Pinkham publicly commenced her great work of helping such women as could not help themselves. Having devoted her life to the study of female complaints she discovered that a large proportion of the diseases of women have a common origin and may have a common cure. That cure she created, and named Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and how honest was her purpose and trustworthy her judgment is plainly indicated by thousands of such thankful letters as this:

DEAR MADAM.— . . . Would that I could induce all suffering women to give your Compound a fair trial. I must say to you that it is an invaluable medicine. It has been very beneficial to myself and daughter.—Mrs. S. BLAIR, Roanoke City, Va.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Headquarters Democratic State Central Committee.
Columbus, O., April 27, 1892.

By Order of the Democratic State Central Committee:

The democrats of Ohio are requested to meet in delegate convention in the city of Columbus on Tuesday and Wednesday, June 14th and 15th, 1892, to place in nomination candidates for the following offices, viz: One secretary of state, two judges of supreme court, one clerk of supreme court, one member of board of public works, and two presidential electors to represent the state at large on the national democratic ticket. The convention will also choose four delegates and four alternate delegates to represent the state at large at the national democratic convention to be held at Chicago, Ill., on June 21 and 22, 1892.

The basis of representation to the state convention is one delegate for each 500 or a fraction of over 250 votes cast for Hon. James E. Campbell for governor in 1889.

All delegates to the state convention shall be individually selected in the several counties of the state before coming to said convention, as mass delegates will not be recognized.

Each county is entitled to the following representation:

Allen	10	Ottawa	6
Crawford	10	Paulding	6
Defiance	6	Putnam	8
Fulton	4	Sandusky	7
Hancock	9	Seneca	10
Henry	6	Van Wert	7
Huron	6	Williams	6
Lucas	15	Wood	8
Mercer	8	Wyandot	6

The state committee adopted the following resolutions, which shall be followed in the calling of congressional district conventions:

Resolved, That the congressional committeeman, and where there is no congressional committee, then the democratic county committee, selected from each county of the congressional district, as existing in the Fifty-second congress, be, and are hereby advised to act as the temporary congressional committee from said county, in the new districts, in which such county may be included under the act of legislature, passed in 1892.

Resolved, That the congressional committeeman from the most populous county in said district shall be advised to act as chairman of said congressional committee, with power to call a meeting of said committee for the purpose of selecting the time and place of holding its congressional convention and fixing the

APPORTIONMENT OF DELEGATES

A TRIFLE.

A kiss he took and a backward look.
And her heart grew suddenly lighter;
A trifle, you say, to color a day.
Yet the dull gray morn seemed brighter,
For hearts are such that a tender touch
May banish a look of sadness;
A small bright thing can make us sing,
But a frown will check our gladness.

The cheeriest ray along our way
Is the little act of kindness,
And the keenest sting some careless thing
That was done in a moment of blindness,
We can bravely face life in a home where strife
No foothold can discover,
And be lovers still if we only will,
Though youth's bright days are over.

Ah, sharp as swords cut the unkind words
That are far beyond recalling
When a face lies hid 'neath a coffin-lid
And bitter tears are falling.
We fain would give the lives we live
To undo our idle scorning;
Then let us not miss the smile and the kiss,
As we part in the light of the morning.

Mrs. Beecher replied that Mrs. Stowe's mental condition was such that would be impossible to obtain any information whatever on the subject.

Funny world we live in. A man who has access to six head of horses, they standing idle in a stable yard, walked two miles out in the country on a little matter of business a day or two ago, while another man who had no horses and very little money hired a team to go the same distance. This was an actual occurrence this week, and shows the perversity of human nature. He who has the facilities for driving prefers to walk, while he who could much better afford to walk and has no team, goes and hires one. Men are crazy to own a team, and it soon becomes a bore to give the horse necessary exercise. It has always been thus, and we presume always will be.

COLUMBUS FLEET.

Europe and America vie with each other at the present time in presenting to the world interesting facts, gleaned from researches in connection with Christopher Columbus and the discovery of this country, the commemoration of which is soon to be celebrated. The Austrian Maritime Review has recently published a very interesting illustrated article, the result of investigations that have been made, particularly in Spain, in order to ascertain beyond doubt the exact type and maritime value of the three ships that brought the great explorer to the boundaries of a new continent. These ships, as we already know, were called "caravelles," but only the latest researches have gained for us the knowledge that this name did not apply to any particular class of vessel.

The Spaniards used the word "Carabela," which they borrowed from the Franconian tongue, and which has its root in the Greek word "Karati," to designate ships that bore not the slightest resemblance to each other, either in construction or capacity.

The investigators gathered all possible proofs that could be furnished either by the admiral's diary, particularly the log book, and the sketches which Columbus published through Jaun de la Cosa, his pilot, besides many ancient documents pertaining to this subject. This thoroughness on the part of the investigators has enabled them to furnish to the marine painter Rafael Manleon the means for executing an aquarell, representing the fleet of Columbus.

The three vessels were the Santa Maria, the Nina, and the Pinta. The dimensions of the Santa Maria were as follows: Length of keel, 58 feet; between perpendiculars, 70 feet; displacement of tonnage, from 120 to 130. The crew numbered no more than 90 men at any time, and the ship was able to carry sufficient water and provisions for them. The admiral's diary speaks of the size of his life boat, but treats the armament only superficially. It mentions, for example, that December 26 the admiral caused to be fired "una Lombarday una Espingarda." The latter of these arms is well known, while the former is a cannon of smaller caliber used in Lombardy. The tackelage of the Santa Maria was that of a small three-master with five single sails. The mainmast had a scuttle which the sketches show to have been round like a basket. The general form of the hull was that which was common to the round vessels of that age. In the stern the ship carried a large cabin-house, with a small one in the bow.

The seaworthiness of the Santa Maria was excellent. The admiral's diary speaks thus of it: "The vessel behaved splendidly in bad weather; it traveled with the swiftness of a good flyer." It was the same with the other ships, and the log records often 15 Italian miles an hour, which is equal to 11 nautical miles, a speed that was very good for vessels of that age.

The dimensions of the other two vessels are not recorded, but the sketches and designes describe them as of smaller size. The Nina resembled the Santa Maria; the Pinta carried triangular sails, which were replaced with square ones after the first stop at the Canaries. Each vessel carried the Castillian flag on its mainmast, and the flag of the admiral on its mizzenmast. The Aragonian arms were excluded by order of the queen, because Aragonia refused to participate in defraying the expenses of the expedition. The admiral's flag was a white standard with a green cross between two crowned letters, F. and I., the initials of Ferdinand and Isabella. A cross was also painted on every sail of the ships, a custom adopted by the Spaniards and Portuguese to distinguish their fleets from those of the infidels. A canvas found in the museum of Madrid, representing the landing of the admiral's fleet at San Salvador, and executed by the painter Brugada, corresponds fully with the descriptions set forth by the Austrian Maritime Review.

A FEW SMILES.

Wife—I wish I had taken the advice of my friends when I married you. They all said you were a fool. Husband—Yes, that's what my friends told me.—Boston Herald.

"But" is a conjunction, but you never realize it so thoroughly as when a goat administers it.—Yonkers Gazette.

Jack Dauber—Where are you putting up nowadays, Tom? Tom Ochre—Same place. Mose Levy's.—Brooklyn Life.

Cholly—I am very fond of little outings. Maud (yawning, 11 p. m.)—I would never have guessed it.—New York Herald.

"Just been studying Burke's Peerage." "Well, what did you find out?" "It struck me that the aristocracy travel under an awful lot of aliases."—New York Sun.

Miss S.—Someone told me the other day that you had received seven proposals this winter. Miss P. (complacently)—Yes, I have. Miss S.—Who is the man?—Life.

"You appear to me to be tight," said the wife when her husband came home. "I wouldn't wonder," he murmured; "I'm strapped enough."—New York Press.

Young Minister—I've been praying for you a long time, Miss Dora. Dora (astonisher)—Why didn't you let em know it? I'd have been yours after the first prayer. —New York Herald.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mrs. Andrew Carnegie is a rather successful amateur photographer.

Julius Chambers has succeeded Nugent Robinson as editor of Once a Week.

The Rev. Epaminondas J. Pierce, of Philadelphia, has left his estate, valued at $200,000, for the education of colored youths for the ministery.

Congressman Curtis, of New York, has only one eye, but he can see as far through a money grab as any of his better equipped fellow members.

Imbert de St. Amand, who has a two-fold celebrity in Paris as a literary man and music critic, is a bachelor of 46 and a very clever and brilliant talker.

A very strong friendship exists between Chief Justice Fuller and Judge Harlan, and they are two very conspicuous figures when they walk along Pennsylvania avenue arm in arm.

Professor W. K. Townsend, of New Haven, who has been appointed United States District Judge for Connecticut in place of Judge Chapman, promoted, is about 40 years of age.

Sam Small, the evangelist, has grown a beard that curiously alters his appearance. He also, much as he has had to say against dudes, shines resplendent nowadays in patent leather shoes and a very elegant black frock coat.

The very remarkable statement is made that Fanny Crosby, who is known wherever church music is heard, from her "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour," is the author of 3,000 hymns. The most famous of her religious songs was written twenty-three years ago, and since that time she has continued to produce them with unremitting industry. She lives in New York, and is 65 years old. No other writer of hymns, not even Dr. Watts, has been so prolific, though Dr. Robert Lowry, of Plainfield, N. J., is said to have produced several hundred. It was he who wrote "Shall We Gather at the River?"

Prof. Norton's volume, or rather two volumes, of the letters of James Russell Lowell are looked for with some impatience. The editor has been remarkably successful in making his collection of letters in the hands of literary and other friends of Mr. Lowell. It is possible that a young Boston sculptor may receive a commission for a bust of Mr. Lowell, to be placed in Westminster Abbey.

ROUGH ON CORNS. Liquid, 15c. Salve & Plaster, 10c.

Suicides and Correct Living.
Injudicious habits produce disordered livers, stomachs, and despondent minds. The best remedy is ROUGH ON BILE PILLS, most prompt and ever reliable cathartic, antibilious little liver pill. 25c., Druggists.

Fly, Flies, Ants,
annihilated by mixing a teaspoonful of ROUGH ON RATS with a saucer of sweetened water; place on high shelves or suspend in the room, or dip pieces of paper or muslin in this mixture and hang them up in the room. Or for Ants mix a teaspoonful of ROUGH ON RATS with a quarter pound of brown sugar and sprinkle on high, out of reach shelves, or on rear border of lower shelves. 15 & 25c.

The Bed Bug.
In hot weather he's about. To quickly and permanently rid your beds of bugs, put a small box of ROUGH ON RATS in a pint bottle of benzine, shake well when using. Douche the mixture into the cracks, crevices, holes and openings of the bedstead. It will turn their toes up rapidly. Then mix another small box of ROUGH ON RATS thoroughly with a quarter pound of lard, with this mixture fill all holes, openings, cracks and crevices in the bed. These two methods are warranted to never fail; to be effective and lasting. Cut this out.

ROUGH ON TOOTHACHE. Instant relief, 15c.

CHRIST THE ONE HOPE

The Name Which Endureth Forever.

Dr. Talmage Asks a Pointed Question—A Very Able and Interesting Sermon.

Brooklyn, May 3.—While Dr. Talmage is able to hold vast audiences spellbound by his eloquence whatever subject he has in hand, he is never so eloquent or so evidently a good orator as when he preaches Christ as the one hope for the regeneration of the world. The text was proved Sunday morning when he discoursed from the text Philippians 2: 9. "The name which is above every name."

Paul is here making rapturous and enthusiastic description of the name of Christ. There are merely worldly names that sometimes thrill you through and through. Such was the name of Henry Clay to a Kentuckian, the name of William Wirt to a Virginian, the name of Daniel Webster to a New Englander.

By common proverb we have come to believe that "there is nothing in a name;" and so parents sometimes at the baptismal altar give titles to their children, reckless of the fact that that title, that name, will be a lifetime hindrance or a lifetime help. You have no right to give your child a name lacking either in euphony or moral meaning. It is a sin to call a child Jeholkim or Tiglathpileser—ar by anything that is disagreeable. Because you have had an exasperating name yourself is no reason why you should inflict it upon your progeny. And yet how often it is that we see a name fullof jargon rattling down from generation to generation, simply because a long while ago some one happened to be afflicted with it. Institutions and great enterprises sometimes without sufficient reason take nomenclature. Mighty destinies have been decided by a name. While we may, by a long course of Christian behavior, get over the misfortune of having been baptized with the name of a despot or a cheat, how much better it would have been if we could have all started life without any such incumbrance!

When Paul, in my text and in other passages of Scripture, burst forth in aspirations of admiration for the name of Christ, I want to inquire what are the characteristics of that appellation, "The name which is above every name." In the first place, speaking to you in regard to the name of Christ, I want to tell you it is an easy name. You are sometimes introduced to people with long and unpronounceable names, and you have to listen cautiously to get the names, and you have to hear them pronounced two or three times before you risk trying to utter them; but within the first two years the little child holds its hands and looks upward, and says "Jesus." Can it be that in all this church this morning there are representatives of any household where children are familiar with the names of the father and mother and brother and sister yet know nothing about "that name which is above every name?" Sometimes you forget the name of a quite familiar friend, and you have to think and think before you get it; but can you imagine any freak of intellect by which you should forget the name of Jesus? That word seems to fit the tongue in every dialect. Down to old age, when the voice is tremulous, and uncertain, and indistinct, even then this regal word finds potent utterance.

When an aged father was dying, one of the children came and said ,"Father, do you know me?" and in the delirium of the last sickness he said, "No, I don't konw you." Then the village pastor came in and said, "Do you know me?" He said, "No, I don't think I ever saw you." Then said the minister, "Do you know Jesus?" "Oh, yes!" said the dying man; "I know Jesus; chief among ten thousand is he, and the one altogether lovely." Yes, for all ages and for all languages, and for all conditions is an easy name.

Jesus, I love thy charming name,
'Tis music to my ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud
That heaven and earth might hear.

But I remark further in regard to this name of Christ, that it is a beautiful name. Now you have noticed that you can disassociate a name from the character of the person who has it. There are some names for instance, that are repulsive to my ear. Those names are attractive to your ear. What is the difference? Why, I happened to know some persons of that name who were cross, or sour, or queer, or unsympathetic, and the persons you have happened to know of that name were kind and genial. Since, then, we cannot disassociate a name from the character of the person who has the name, that consideration makes the name of Jesus unspeakably beautiful. I cannot pronounce that name in our presence, but you think of Bethlehem and Gethsemane and Golgotha, and you see his loving face and you hear his tender voice, and you feel his gentle touch. As soon as I pronounce his name in your presence you think of him who banqueted with heavenly hicrarchs, yet came down and breakfasted on the fish which the rough men hauled out of Genesaret; you think of him who, though the clouds are the dust of his feet, walked footsore on the road to Emmaus. I cannot speak his name in your hearing this morning, but you think right away of the shining one who restored the centurion's daughter, and who helped a blind man to sunlight, and who made the cripple's crutch useless, and who looked down into the laughing eyes of the babe until it struggled to go to him; then, flinging his arms around it and impressing a kiss upon its beautiful brow, said, "Of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Oh, beautiful name, the name of Jesus, which stands for love, for patience, for self-sacrifice, for magnanimity, for everything that is good, and glorious, and tender, and sympathetic, and kind! It is accordant with all harmonies. Sometimes, when I look at the name of Jesus Christ, it seems as if the letters were made with tears, and then they seem to be gleaming crowns. Sometimes that name seems to be twisted out of the straw on which he lay, and then it seems to be built out of the thrones on which his people are to reign. Sometimes I sound that word Jesus, and I hear it in the sob of Gethsemane and the groan of Calvary, and then I speak his name and it is all aripple with hosanna. Glorious name!

Take all the glory of bookbindery and put them around the page on which that name is printed. On Christmas morning wreath it on the wall. Let it drip from harp's string and let it thunder out in organ's diapason. Sound it often, sound it well, until every star shall seem to shine it, and every flower shall seem to breathe it, and mountain and sea, day and night, and earth and heaven acclaim in full chant, "Blessed be His glorious name forever." "The name which is above every name."

Have you ever heard in a Methodist church, during a time of revival, a score of souls come to the altar and cry out for mercy under the power of just two lines of glorious old John Wesley?

Jesus, the name high over all,
In heaven, or earth, or sky.

To the repenting soul, to the exhausted invalid, to the Sunday school girl, to the snow-white octogenarian, it is beautiful. The aged man comes in from a long walk, and he tremulously opens the door of his home, and he hangs his hat on the old nail, and he puts his cane in the usual place, and he lies on his couch, and he says to his children and his grandchildren: "My dears, I am going away from you." And they say: "Why, where are you going grandfather?" "Oh!" he says, "I am going to Jesus;" and so the old man faints away into heaven.

And the little child comes in from play and she flings herself into your lap, and she says, "Mamma, I'm so sick, I'm so very sick;" and you put her to bed, and the fever is worse and worse, and some midnight while you are shaking up the pillow and giving the medicine, she looks up in your face and says, "Mamma, I'm going away from you." You say, "Why, where are you going, my darling?" And she says, "I am going to Jesus." And the red cheek that you take to be the mark of the fever turns out to be only the carnation bloom of heaven.

Oh! was it not beautiful when a little child heard that her playmate was dying, and she went to the house, and she clambered upon the bed of her dying playmate, and she said to the dying playmate, "Where are you going to?" and the dying girl said, "I am going to Jesus." Then said the little girl that was well, as she bent over to give the parting kiss to her dying playmate, "Well, then, if you are going to Jesus, give my love to him." It is a beautiful name, whether on the lips of childhood or on the lips of the old man. When my father was dying, the village minister said to him, quoting over his pillow this passage: "This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners," and there he stopped. Then my father finished the quotation by saying, "of whom I am chief."

But I remark again in regard to this name of Christ, that it is a mighty name. Rothschild is a name mighty in the commercial world, Silliman is a name mighty in the scientific world, Irving is a name mighty in the literary world, Wellington is a name mighty in the military world; but where in all the earth is a name so potent to lift, and thrill, and arouse, and rally, and bless, as the name Jesus? Why, the sound of that one name unhorsed Saul, and threw Newton on his face on ship's deck; and that one name to-day, while I speak, holds a hundred million souls under omnipotent spell. That name in England to-day means more than Victoria. In Germany that name to-day means more than Emperor William. Oh, mighty name!

I have seen a man bound hand and foot of the devil and captive of all evil habits, at the sound of that name dash down his shackles and march out forever free. I have seen a man overcome of misfortune and trial, every kind of trouble had he; but at the sound of that name the sea dropped and the clouds parted, and the sunburst of eternal gladness poured upon his soul. I have seen a man hardened in infidelity, defiant of God, full of jeer and scoff, jocose of the judgment day, reckless of eternity, at the sound of that name blanch, and cower, and groan, and kneel, and weep, and repent, and pray, and believe, and rejoice, and triumph.

Oh! it is a mighty name. Under its power the last temple of superstition will come down, and the last Juggernaut of iniquity will be shattered to pieces. The red horse of carnage spoken of in apocalyptic vision, and the black horse of death must come back on their haunches, while the white horse of victory goes forth, mounted of him who hath the moon under his feet and the stars of heaven for his tiara. Mighty name! It will make the whole earth tremble, and then it will make all the nations sing. Mighty name!

Other dominions seem to be giving way; France had to give up some of her favorite provinces; Spain has lost a great deal of her power; many of the thrones of the world are being lowered; many of the scepters of the world are being shortened, but every tract-distributor, every Christian institution established, spreads abroad the mighty name of Christ. It has already been heard under the Chinese wall, and in the Siberian snow castle, and in the Brazilian grove, and in the eastern pagoda. That name will swallow up all other names. That crown will yet cover up all other crowns. That empire will yet compass all denominations.

All crimes shall cease and ancient frauds shall fail,
Returning justice lift aloft her scale;
Peace o'er the world her olive wand extend,
And white-robed innocence from heaven descend.

But I remark again, taking a step forward in this subject, that the name of Christ is an enduring name. You go over the fence of the graveyard and you pull the weeds back from the name that has nearly faded from the tombstone, and you wish that Sir Walter Scott's "Old Mortality" would come along and rechisel it so that you might really find out what the name is. Why, that was the name of the greatest man in all the town, in all the country, in all the state, now almost faded from the tombstone. And so the greatest names of this world either have perished or are perishing. Gregory VI., Sancho of Spain, Conrad I. of Germany, Richard I. of England, Catherine of Russia. Those names were once mighty, and they made the earth tremble. Who cares for them now? None so poor as to do them reverence. But the name of Christ is enduring forever. It will be preserved in the world's fine art. There will be other Bellinis to sketch the Madonna, and other Ghirlandajos Bronzinos to show Christ visiting the spirits in prison, and other Giottos to appal the vision of the crucifixion. It will be preserved in the world's literature. There will be other Alexander Popes to write the "Messiah," and other Dr. Youngs to celebrate his triumph, and other Cowpers to sing his love. It will be preserved in the world's grand and elaborate architecture, and Protestantism shall yet have its St. Mark's and its St. Peters. It shall be preserved in the world's literature, for there will be other Paleys to write the "Evidences of Christianity." More than all, it will be embalmed in the hearts of all the good of earth, and all the great ones of heaven. Shall the emancipated bondman ever forget who set him free? Shall the blind man ever forget the divine physician who gave him sight? Shall the lost and wandering ever forget who brought them home? Why, to make the world forget that name would be to burn up all the Bibles, and burn down all the churches, and then, in the spirit of universal arson, go through the gate of heaven and put the torch to all the temples and mansions and palaces, until in the awful conflagration all heaven went down, and the people come out to look upon the charred ruins; but even then they would hear the name of Christ in the thunder of falling towers and in the crash of temple walls, and see it interwoven into the flying banners of flame, and the redeemed of heaven would say, "Let the temples and the palaces burn; let them burn; we have Jesus left." Blessed be his glorious name forever. "The name which is above every name."

My friends have you made up your mind by what name you will accost Christ when you see him in heaven? Now, that is a practical question. For you will see him, child of God, just as certainly as you sit there and I stand here. By what name have you made up your mind to call Christ when you first meet him in heaven? Will you call him "Anointed One" or "Messiah?" or will you take one of the symbolic terms which you read in your Bible on earth—terms by which Christ was designated?

Some day perhaps you will be wandering among the gardens of God on high, the place abloom with eternal spring time, infinite luxury of lily and rose and amaranth, and perhaps you will look up into the face of Christ and say: "My Lord, thou art the Rose of Sharon and the Lily of the Valley." Some time there will be a new soul come into heaven to take its place in the firmament and shine as the stars forever and ever, and the luster of a useful life will shine forth tremulous and beautiful, and you will look up into the face of Christ and say: "My Lord, thou art a brighter star, the Morning Star, the Star of Jacob, the Star of the Redeemer." Some day you will be walking among the fountains that toss in the sunlight, falling in crash of pearl and amethyst into golden and crystaline urn, and wandering up the round banked river to the place where the water first tinkles its silver on the rock, and from chalices of love you will be drinking to honor and everlasting joy, and you will look up into the face of Christ and say, "My Lord, my Lord, thou art the Fountain of Living Water." Some day you will be wandering among the lambs and sheep of heaven feeding by the rock, rejoicing in the care of him who brought you out of the wilderness world into the sheepfold, and you will look up into his face and say, "My Lord, my Lord, thou art the Shepherd of the Everlasting Hills."

But there is another name by which you can call him. Perhaps that will be the name I have not mentioned yet. I imagine that heaven is all full. Every throne has its king. Every harp has its harper. All the wealth of the universe has come into heaven. There is nothing to be added. The song full. The ranks full. The mansions all full. Heaven full. The sun will set afire with its splendor the domes of the temple, and burnish the golden streets into a blaze, and be reflected back from the solid pearl of the twelve gates, and it will be noon in heaven. Noon on the river. Noon on the hills. Noon in the valleys. High noon. And then you will look up, gradually accustoming your vision to the sight, shading your eyes at the first lest they be extinguished with the insufferable splendor, until after awhile you can look upon the full irradiation, and you cry out, "My Lord, my Lord, thou art the sun that never sets."

But at this point I am staggered with the thought that there may be persons in his house for whom his name has no charm, though it is so easy, though it is so beautiful, though it is so potent, though it is so enduring. Oh! come today, and see whether there is anything in Christ. I challenge you to test with me this morning whether God is good, and whether Christ is precious, and whether the Holy Ghost is omnipotent. Come, my brother, I challenge you. Come, and we will knee at the altar of mercy. You kneel on one side of the altar and I will kneel on the other side of the altar of mercy, and we will not get up from our knees until our sins are pardoned and we are able to ascribe all honor to the name—you pronouncing it and I pronouncing it—"the name which is above every name."

His worth, if all the nations knew
Sure the whole earth would love him, too.

I pray God he may move upon this assemblage now, that we may see him walking all through these aisles, that the Holy Spirit may spread his wings over this auditory. Now is your time for heaven. O, my friends! meeting once, perhaps never again until the books are opened, what shall we say of this morning's service? Have I told you the whole truth? Have you listened to the whole truth? Now is your time for heaven. Come into the kingdom. If you never had an invitation before, I give it to you now. I do not ask what your sin has been, or what your wandering. That is not pertinent to the question. The only thing is whether you want Christ. Come in, the furthest off. Come, the nearest by. "Where sin abounded, grace shall much more abound." Is there in all this august assemblage a man who feels he is too wicked to come? You are mistaken. Come now. "Now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation."

O, ye who are young! come now. It is no gloomy religion that I preach. It will take no luster from your eye. It will take no color from your cheek. It will take no spring from your step. I know what I am talking about. I have felt the consolation of this grace in my own heart. It is not a theory with me. I know in whom I believe, and he has been so good a friend to me, I have a right this morning to commend his friendship to all the people. Oh! come into the kingdom. Do not say you are too bad. "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts." "Look unto me, all ye ends of the earth." How is he going to do—drive you into the kingdom? He will not do it. If you get in at all it will be because you are drawn in by his love. What does he say? "Look unto me, all ye ends of the earth." He was lifted up. What for? To drive? No! lifted up to draw. Oh! come now, come now into the kingdom of our Lord Jesus. You have heard of that warrior of ancient times who went into battle against Christ. He hated Christ, and he went into battle, fighting Christ; but in the battle he got wounded, he was struck by the arrow and he fell, and as he lay with his face up to the sun, and the life blood was oozing away, he put his hand to his heart and took a handful of blood from the wound, and held it up towards the sun and cried out: "O Jesus, thou hast conquered." And if to-day, my hearer, struck through by the arrow of God's gracious spirit, you realize the truth of what I have been saying, you would surrender yourself to the Lord who bought you; you would say: "I will no longer battle against Christ's mercy. Lord Jesus, thou hast conquered." Glorious name! I know not what you will do with it; but I will tell you one thing before I stop—I must tell it. I will tell you one thing here and now, that I take him to be my Lord, my God, my pardon, my peace, my comfort, my salvation, my heaven. Blessed be his glorious name forever. "The name which is above every name."

Old Titus Writing the History of Rome.

When old Titus wrote Rome's history he did not think that in future ages the springs of Europe would be brought to America, for America was not known then, although it existed, and so did the Carlsbad Springs. This is (a) House Cleaning Time —and it's a time of trouble and much work for unbelieving women. Because their grandmothers worked hard then and made things uncomfortable, they can't believe that there's any better way.

Other women can—millions of them. They use Pearline, and "take it easy." They're spared the hard work, get through in half the time, and save the wear and tear that's made by useless scouring and scrubbing. Paint, glass, marble, wood-work, carpets, hangings, everything that will "wash" at all, is cleaned or washed easily and safely with Pearline.

Use Pearline, and you won't mind the trials of house-cleaning. You can laugh at them. But if you don't use Pearline, wiser women will laugh at you.

Send it Back — Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing send it back. 306 JAMES PYLE, New York.

The France Medical and Surgical Institute of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Institute in the State incorporated with a Capital of $300,000.00.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,
38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies now to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 100 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

MARKETS OF THE WORLD

What Our Grains Bring When Sold.

Northern Farmers Letting Go of Their Wheat.

A Day of Quiet and Light Trading in Toledo—Information from all Commercial Centers.

At Chicago the wheat trade is reported light, but market very firm. Offerings light. Dealers on both sides timid. Corn is firm, and shorts are more and more deeply concerned on account of the continued wet weather, and late planting. We see no reason for this. Corn in the ground by May 15 does very well.

The Telegraph says it is snowing in Minnesota and prospects of seeding quite discouraging.

Foreign markets generally closed steady, but do not send very satisfactory orders.

On this side of the water the wheat markets closed 1-2c to 3-8c higher.

Corn has been firm all day and closes 1 7-8c higher in New York and 1 1-2c up in Chicago for May.

In New York May wheat closed at 90c, July at 90 1-2c, May corn at 49 3-4c, and July at 47 1-4c, May oats 1-4c up at 33 3-4c.

In Chicago May wheat closed at 80 3-4c July at 81 1-8c after selling at 81 1-2c. May corn at 42 3-8c, July at 40 1-2c, May oats 5-8c up at 28 3-4c

In Toledo, we have had a day of quite light trading. The wheat market has been firm and July and August futures advanced 1-2c, but dealers are unsettled and slow to believe. It is a weather market, but the change to a growing temperature all over the winter wheat belt gives the impression that next week's report may give a brighter outlook.

On the call May sold at 89 5-8c, July at 84 3-8c, and August at 83 3-8c. After the call May sold at 89 5-8c and closed at 89 3-4c; July sold at 84 1-2c, and closed at 85c; August sold at 83 3-8c, and closed at 84c.

Cash wheat was in fair demand. No. 2 soft sold at 89 5-8c, L. S. at 90c, closing 89 3-4c; No. 3 soft at 87@72c; No. 1 white at 89c.

Corn—No. 2 at 41c, No. 3 at 40 1-2c, No. 4 at 39c.

Oats—No. 2 for May at 30c; No. 3 at 28c.

Receipts.

The receipts of wheat to-day at Minneapolis and Duluth are 304,235 bu, and at five other western points 106,949 bu. On the same Tuesday in 1891 the receipts were 94,589 bu. The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were wheat 368,452 bu and flour to an aggregate of 660,000 bu of wheat. Export of corn 133,962 bu and of oats 42,450 bu.

English markets as reported herein are stronger for wheat and a shade higher for corn.

Growth of Grain in Argentina.—The acreage in wheat and corn in the Argentine republic is given as below:

	1884.	1888.
Wheat	686,000	824,000
Corn	330,000	832,000
	1889.	1890.
Wheat	1,035,000	3,306,000
Corn	850,000	1,685,000

The immense extent of this territory may—nearly all—be considered suitable for cereal cultivation, and it opens up a serious question of competition with this country in grain cultivation.

Decline in Wheat Area.

The New York Produce Exchange Weekly says:

"The area under wheat in the United Kingdom in 1889 was 2,539,099 acres. In 1890, 2,478,677 acres; in 1891, 2,388,147 acres; in 1892, acreage very short, crop decidedly backward. Fine growing weather is needed."

Since the above was sent from England, the weather has been cold and wet most of the time.

Dodge's Coming Report.

A great deal of interest centers around the next government crop report. Interested dealers may squirm and twist and swear at results, but all the same the government report is the criterion. What will it be? April has not been a propitatory and growing month and we do not expect to see the 81.2 per cent. advanced. Everywhere winter wheat is backward, and everywhere the sowing of spring wheat is two to three weeks late. We repeat that the crop must hump itself to produce 500,000,000 bu.

The Export Movement.

The Pacific coast has exported very lightly in April, but from Atlantic ports the movement in wheat and flour will correspond with previous months. The aggregate should be less than previous months.

Duluth Deliveries.

Gen. Welles, secretary of Duluth board of trade, telegraphs us that deliveries of wheat on May contracts yesterday were upwards of 10,000,000 bu. This puts Duluth way ahead of all former precedents on wheat deliveries and is a triumphant refutation of the theory of the alliances that grain is not delivered on contracts.

The world's shipments of wheat last week to importing markets aggregated 6,600,000 bu. Requirements over home grown deliveries estimated at 7,000,000 bu.

Stocks were dull this morning. Prices opened weak and declined 1-8@7-8 per cent., but subsequent buying resulted in a sharp rally, led by Sugar and Pullman. The former had advanced 1 1-2 by 11 o'clock, while Pullman advanced 1 3-4. In the hour to noon prices dropped and at 12 o'clock most of the list were down to the opening figures. At this writing the market is dull.

Chicago, May 3.—Opening: Wheat—May, 80 1-4; July, 80 3-4. Corn—May, 41 1-8; July, 39 3-4. Oats—May 28 1-8 Pork—May, 9 42 1-2; July, 9 60. Lard—May, 6 12 1-2; July, 6 25. Ribs—May, 5 67 1-2; July, 5 72 1-2.

Dry Goods.

New York, May 3.—The dry goods market opened with a fair demand, but no new features. The warm temperature prevailing was appreciated as favorable to an increased movement.

British Grain Trade.

London, May 3.—The Mark Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: English wheats are steady. Prices favor holders. Foreign wheats are stronger at an average rise of 3d. California cargoes are quoted at 36s 3d, and Oregon cargoes at 37s 6d. Corn is 6d dearer. A good business has been done in American cargoes at 20s. Oats are firmer. At to-day's markets English wheats were firm at 6d advance. The prices of foreign wheats were maintained, though the inquiry was dull. Flour was steady. Oats were firm. Corn was 6d dearer. Barley was steady. Beans and peas were firm.

London Wool.

London, May 3.—At the wool sales to-day 10,943 bales, containing a good selection of well grown Melbourne and Victoria and New South Wales were offered. A CARD.

Having re-leased our present quarters for a term of years, we will, at a great expense, remodel the building from top to bottom. An entire new front will be put in, the room will be enlarged and refinished, our shop moved upstairs, and many important and necessary changes made. In consequence we must get our goods out of the way. Many pieces would be ruined by the dust and dirt. Everything will be sacrificed; many valuable pieces at less than cost. Our line is full and complete and must attract you. Terms of sale strictly cash. No goods engraved.

J. J. FREEMAN,
313 Summit street.

FREE TREATMENT FAKES

How Innocent People are Made to Help Rob Their Neighbors.

Poisonous Drugs Frequently Used to Produce Quick Results.

How Medical Humbugs of the Karl Virchow Schick Variety Draw Sick People Into Their Clutches.

The city authorities only recently succeeded in ridding this community of the medical imposter and "free treatment" fraud "Karl Virchow Schick." But the driving out of one "free treatment" freak seems to have no terror for the swarm of harpies and medical vultures that follow in his train. Each time the "free treatment" fakir baits his hook in a different style so that many sick people do not see that it is the same scheme by which they were caught before. For this reason it becomes the duty of the newspapers to warn the people against each new plan to rob them of their hard earned dollars and possibly of their lives.

One of the principle objects of the "free treatment" racket, as now being worked by the medical fakirs, is to place the "free patients" under great obligation, so that they will give a "testimonial" which the fakir uses to "catch" the people who will pay. Some powerful and poisonous drug is generally squirted up the nose or otherwise administered by the quacks to make the "free treatment" patient feel better quick and long enough to get them to sign a testimonial. Of course the free treated victims feel worse again afterwards, but having signed a "statement" in the hope of getting cured without charge, they are nine times out of ten afraid to go back on it. These "testimonials" are frequently paraded in the papers after the persons giving them have died of the disease which the medical fakir advertised as being cured. The "free treatment" racket not only enables the charlatans to buy testimonials by the use of about 5 cents' worth of powerful drugs, but it also serves to make showing of business by drawing a crowd. Persons who, in the foolish hope of getting something for nothing, will knowingly lend their names to help rob a neighbor, have no place among honest people. The testimonials of a "free treatment" doctor are not to be relied upon because they have been bought to fool those who are willing to pay for treatment.

No reputable and skilled physician will find it necessary to give "free treatment" a portion of the time any more than a reliable dry goods or grocery house would be compelled to give away goods at certain hours in order to get the people to trade at that store. The genuine skilled medical specialist who can cure dangerous and stubborn chronic diseases not understood by the ordinary family doctor can get all the business he can do without throwing out the bait of "free treatment." He can also get plenty of legitimate testimonials from grateful people whom he has really cured and who have paid him for his services. A striking illustration of how real medical skill will win with the people is found right here in Toledo, in the case of Dr. Kalkhoff, the European specialist. His spacious offices, surgery and laboratory at 505 and 507 Summit street are daily thronged with rapidly recovering patients. Many of these patients were formerly treated for a "testimonial" by "free treatment" or $5 fakirs, who are still printing the names of those now treating with Dr. Kalkhoff as cured by them. Thoroughly reliable and skilled physicians like the one referred to above care nothing for these "free treatment" schemers who come and go, but it is clearly the duty of the newspapers to warn the people against the bad and point out the good among a class of men who are entrusted with human life.

THE GAS TRUSTEES

Hold a Short Meeting, Listen to Complaints and Abolition Two Wells.

The gas trustees held a brief session last evening. Prior to the meeting the board attended the meeting of the ways and means committee with a view of securing the issue of that $100,000 of gas bonds.

Dr. Jones predicted a bitter legal fight over the issue of the bonds. He did not see the necessity of it, and thought there was room enough for both companies.

A schedule of bills amounting to $1,464 was presented and ordered paid.

Rentals amounting to $1,170 were reported and ordered paid.

On the recommendation of the manager, wells No. 25 and 26 in Bloom township were ordered abandoned.

It was decided to buy a supply of dry meters in place of wet ones that had been purchased and found useless.

A delegation of pavers appeared and presented a grievance relative to the employment of certain pavers by the city who were objectionable to the petitioners.

John Kiley addressed the board on behalf of the delegation. He said the men employed were neither pavers, pipe liners nor taxpayers. He wanted to know why old residents and taxpayers could not have part of the work. After some discussion the matter was referred to the manager.

Secretary Brown reported receipts since last meeting of $505.74. Balance in treasury, $15,327.

The pavers present were reluctant to leave without some definite answer. They have a conference with Manager Heston to-day.

A SLUGGISH STREAM.

It Gets Foul and Poisonous Unless It Is Kept Constantly Flowing.

At this season of the year people feel more or less weak, run down, wearied and depressed. It has been commonly supposed that it is due to impurities of the blood, and that only by purifying the blood can good health be secured. Is this true? Let us see. The blood gets impure because it is sluggish. How does a stream get impure, with green scum and poisons on the top? Simply because it doesn't run. A running stream is not impure, but a stagnant or sluggish stream always is. If, therefore, you would keep your blood pure, keep it moving, keep it throbbing. The moment it begins to be sluggish, it will begin to be impure, and you will feel the effects in tired, weak feelings, depressed emotions, and a thousand and one troubles which always follows. The proper way to keep the blood stirring is by the use of a pure stimulant, in moderation. Stimulate it gently, and it will keep in constant, healthy motion, and good health will follow. There is but one way in which this can be done, and that is by the use of the purest and best stimulant you can find, preferably whiskey, and there is but one absolutely pure, medicinal whiskey known to the world, and that is Duffy's Pure Malt. Scientists admit this, the doctors all confirm it. It is more generally used to-day than any other whiskey which the world has ever seen, and it is popular only through its merit. Do not let any druggist or grocer deceive you by saying they have something "just as good," "something they can recommend," etc. When any dealer says this, he has an interested motive, which usually is, to sell you something cheap and inferior, on which he can make more money. Do not be so deceived.

DRUNKENNESS

Or the Liquor Habit Positively Cured by administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never Fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist.

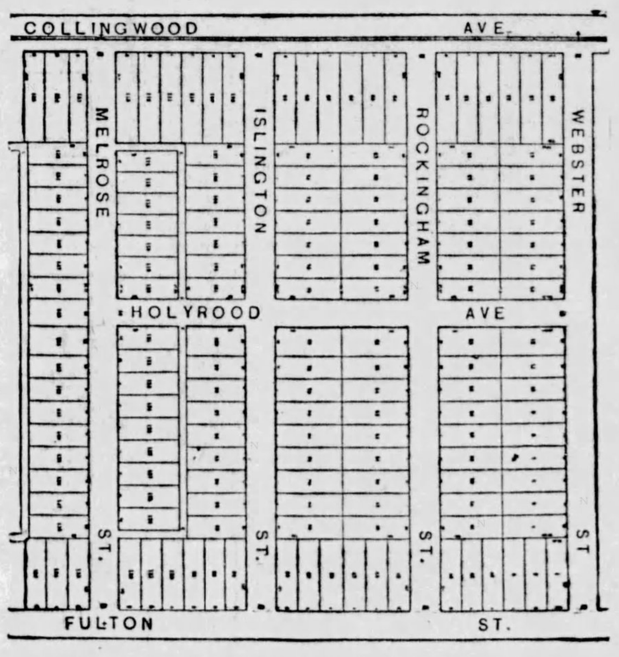
KENSINGTON!



We have added to our list of fine residence property this beautiful plat of KENSINGTON.

This addition has been laid out carefully and a great deal of money expended to make it the handsomest exclusively residence property in the city.

The owners propose to continue the improvement of this property in every way that will make it attractive for those who desire to live in a fine residence center.

The paving on Fulton and Webster streets will be laid this season. Stone sidewalks will be put in where needed.

Watch the development of this property.

By June 1st you can travel to and from Kensington on electric cars.

It will not be long when lots that are now offered at $20 to $25 per foot will bring $40 to $50.

V. B. SNYDER & SON

225 AND 227 SUMMIT STREET.

Yesterday (Monday) was the first of our Special Overcoat Sale. We sold 48 garments, actual count, and nearly every purchaser was a resident and many of them business men. This mark of confidence comes from always doing as we advertise. J. N. MOCKETT.

A CHANCE TO SAVE!

Anticipating an early Spring, and being naturally enthusiastic, we bought THE LARGEST AND FINEST LINE OF SPRING OVERCOATS!

Ever brought to Toledo, and we now have more than a thousand (1,000) Light Weight Overcoats. We want to sell them, do you want to buy ONE? If you do, this is an earnest, honest invite to you to come in and see what we've got.

YOUR CHOICE

—FOR—

$15.00.

Do you realize what this means? It means that you can get of Mockett your choice of any Light Weight Overcoat for FIFTEEN DOLLARS. Splendid Whip Cords, Grey Worsteds (silk lined), English Meltons (box style), or regular style. Fine Drab Tricots, Black Meltons, Dark Green Meltons, Mode Kerseys, Tan Kerseys, Fine Diagonals, any of them fit for a king to wear. These goods have been selling at our regular low price (guaranteed lowest in the city),

At $20, $25 and $30,

But now everything goes; we reserve none of 'em. The sale is genuine and MEANS BUSINESS FOR FIFTEEN DOLLARS.

$15 ..GIVES YOU.. ..CHOICE.. $15

You would pay for these at the Cheap Merchant Tailors of the City from $25 to $35. The First-Class Tailors would charge from $40 to $50. We give you

CHOICE FOR $15.

The goods speak for themselves in Quality, Style, Fit and Finish. Our loss is our own; we own the goods, have paid for 'em, and can do as we like with them, and we mean to sell them, so we offer you choice of the Finest Stock of Overcoats in the City for
